Sierra Nevada: Fair through Friday.

BLAZE SWEEPS NOVATO HOME — Novato firemen struggle in vain to stop blaze that gutted home of James Mace at 521 Atherton Avenue, operator of the Acorn Acres Boarding Kennels, last night. Dogs in the kennels, some distance from the house, were unharmed. Another kennel fire, at the Teeny Weeny Kennels in San Geronimo, yesterday took the lives of 30 pedigreed dogs and cats. 30 Pedigreed Animals Perish In Kennel Fire

Thirty pedigreed dogs and cats, which defied rescuers' attempts to get them out of their kennels, perished in an $11,000 fire that gutted Teeny Weeny Kennels in San Geronimo yesterday afternoon.

The only animal saved was a Doberman Pinscher dog, which cowered under a bed and bit the left hand of County Fireman Douglas Anderson, 23, of Woodacre. Despite the wound, Anderson hauled the dog out to safety. County Fire Chief Charles Reilly said Anderson got a tetanus shot last night. The dog was taken to a veterinarian for treatment for burns.

Burned to death were 11 Manx cats, 14 Chihuahua dogs and five Dobermanns, including a female insured for $1,000. Mr. and Mrs. Israel Whittaker of Meadow Way, owners of the kennels, said they had been offered $2,500 for the female Dobermann.

Firemen estimated $5,000 damage to the kennels and home, $5,000 to contents, and $1,000 for one Dobermann. Value of the other animals were not given.

Three Lagunitas School students, who spotted the blaze about 3 p.m., rushed in with a garden hose in an effort to quell the blaze. But the hose had a split in it, and they could get no water pressure.

With the help of other passersby, the boys broke windows and tried to free the animals, but the frightened creatures refused to flee.

Sheriff's Deputy Kenneth Romano, who was called to the scene, said the fire was "immoral" today by the semi-official Vatican City newspaper Observatore Romano.

The newspaper commented on the published reports of an experiment in Bologna by the scientists, headed by Prof. Daniele Petrucci, a Catholic. The scientists said an egg cell taken from a woman was fertilized by male sperm in a tiny glass container and developed for 29 days before it was destroyed.

Osservatore Romano, which reflects the thinking of the Roman Catholic Church, said the creation or reproduction of human beings by artificial means in a laboratory would be "monstrous" and "sacrilegious."

Many Stores Open Until 9 Tonight

Novato stores, staging special sales events in connection with the city's first birthday, will be among those open until 9 o'clock tonight for Friday shoppers.

Also open until the same hour will be stores in San Rafael, Corte Madera Center and some in San Anselmo.

AF CLAIMS SIX SPEED MARKS SET BY BOMBER

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Air Force today claimed six world speed records for its B-58 Hustler jet bomber which flew more than 1,200 miles per hour over a 621-mile course yesterday.

The B-58's top speed was 1,200.194 m.p.h. The other five records claimed were for speeds with various payloads ranging from 2,204 pounds to 4,408 pounds.

The previous non-payload record was held by an Air Force F-101. The other five previous records were claimed by Russia.

Vatican Hits Creating Life In Test Tube

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—The reported generation of human life in a laboratory test tube by three Italian scientists was condemned as "immoral" today by the semi-official Vatican City newspaper Observatore Romano.

The newspaper commented on the published reports of an experiment in Bologna by the scientists, headed by Prof. Daniele Petrucci, a Catholic. The scientists said an egg cell taken from a woman was fertilized by male sperm in a tiny glass container and developed for 29 days before it was destroyed.

Osservatore Romano, which reflects the thinking of the Roman Catholic Church, said the creation or reproduction of human beings by artificial means in a laboratory would be "monstrous" and "sacrilegious."

Ex-Fire-Fighter Races To Fire; It's His House

By ELLEN BRY

James Mace of Novato, a former fireman, raced after the engines last night to aid Novato firemen. He arrived at 521 Atherton Avenue to find his home a mass of flames.

The two-story wooden building was gutted. In the flames were new Christmas gifts of China and silver, the couple's two-year-old furniture and other belongings.

CINDERS IN MINUTES
Novato firemen pulled in six units of equipment in an attempt to quell the blaze. But the wooden building, 50 to 60 years old, was almost cinders only a few minutes after Mrs. Mace put in a call to the department.

Fire Chief George Cavallero reported today that the call probably was delayed several minutes. Mrs. Mace apparently called the Novato Yellow Cab Co. at least twice by mistake before getting the fire department, he said.

She told the chief last night that she had tried to get the department more than once. The cab company log shows one call only a few minutes before the fire department call.

CAB ARRIVES
The "rush" call brought a Yellow cab to the scene of the fire. Cavallero said the cab dispatcher reported another call from a voice wanting the fire department.

Mrs. Mace arrived home early in the evening, turned on the television set and went to the kitchen. She returned to the

Mass Meeting Tonight On Civic Center Uproar

Fusselman, DeLisle Debate Use Of Fund

Plots and counterplots, meetings and unfounded rumors of meetings, whirled dizzily today in the civic center uproar.

Mountains of votes were pouring in on the certified public accountants who are handling the Independent-Journal straw ballot appearing again on this page, and to be printed for the final time tomorrow.

Here are highlights of the day:

1. Harold Stockstad, chairman of the Citizens for the Civic Center Committee, said his organization was trying to roll up a majority of Marin County registered voters on the straw vote before midnight tomorrow. The committee will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in Olney Hall at College of Marin, with the public invited.

Marin College Gym Closed; 'Fire Hazard'

The College of Marin gymnasium was ordered closed last night as a serious fire hazard.

The sudden decision to shut down the building was made unanimously by Marin Junior College District trustees after a report by Kentfield Fire Chief John McLeran that a capacity crowd of 790 persons "couldn't be emptied in less than 20 minutes" in an emergency.

Closing of the gym will necessitate rescheduling of the six remaining games to be played by the college basketball team.

College Director Stephen E. Epler was directed to seek use of Redwood High School gymnasium as a "home" for the team until the necessary corrections can be made in the gymnasium.

Tonight's game with Sierra College will be played in the Redwood gym at 8 p.m., according to Harry Pieper, head of the physical education department. Locale for the remaining games had not been determined today.

The board's action also closed down the indoor rifle range in the gymnasium basement, described GYM, page 4

FUSSELMAN STRATEGY
3. Auditor-Controller Leon A. deLisle said he could tie up the civic center funds to prevent their use for administrative building conversion to a hospital.

4. Supervisor Chairman William D. Fusselman revealed strategy which he said nullified deLisle's legalistic obstruction.

DeLisle's reasoning was based on the state law that money appropriated for one purpose can't be used for another purpose by a 3-2 vote. It's not a matter of "another purpose" in that sense, claimed Fusselman.

'TAKES FOUR VOTES'
"Under state law an appropriation of money shall be by four-fifths of the board although three members can vote to spend," said deLisle.

"If we have an appropriation which the board wishes to cancel, three votes very likely cancel, but to spend it for another purpose, it takes four votes," said Fusselman.

Assessment District 'Meeting' Backfires

A bid by Latipac-Perini Co. officials to sell two San Rafael city councilmen on the $2,728,000 proposed Marin Bay Assessment District backfired last night.

Councilman Fred Jensen stormed indignantly out of the "meeting" at the Peacock Gap golf clubhouse.

"I'm not going to discuss this without the press here," he declared.

Invited to the discussion were Jensen and Councilman Louis H. (Bud) Baar. Present from Latipac-Perini Co. were Louis Perini Jr., vice president of western operations of the mammoth Perini Co., Edward Lee, manager of Marin Bay development, and Daniel Coleman, engineer for the development.

Jensen and Baar had been invited to discuss their questions about the assessment district by Coleman on Wednesday.

Arriving at 5 p.m. at the clubhouse, Jensen asked where the rest of the council was.

Replied Lee: "Well, the mayor has no more questions and Dr. (Charles) Aby is on vacation in Mexico."

Councilman David Menary Jr. was not invited. He said today he had not been notified of the meeting.

Jensen and Baar were alone with the Latipac officials in the clubhouse which closes at 5 p.m. Even the bar was closed.

When Jensen refused to discuss the assessment district unless a newspaper representative was present, Lee called an Independent-Journal reporter at 5:30 p.m., one-half hour after the meeting was supposed to begin.

Notified that a reporter would not be sent on such short notice, Jensen left.

Councilman Baar was not available for comment today.

Independent Journal SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY STRAW BALLOT

(As suggested by Supervisor William D. Fusselman)

Do you approve the supervisors' order to stop work on the county civic center?

- ☐ YES, I approve
☐ NO, I do not approve

Name .....
Address .....

To be counted, each ballot must carry a legible name and address and must be mailed to:

Dalton, Graupner & Barber,
(Certified Public Accountants)
P. O. Box 497
San Rafael, Calif.

Letters containing ballots must be postmarked by midnight, Saturday, January 14.

'NO'S' SEEM TO LEAD

Balloting Heavy In I-J Vote On Civic Center

Voting appeared extremely heavy today in the Independent-Journal straw vote on the civic center stop work question.

Requests for extra copies of yesterday's issue—the first to carry the straw ballot—quickly exceeded the supply. News-stands were soon sold out and the last available copies were released this morning.

To meet the demand, the I-J today reprinted 5,000 copies of the ballot. They will be available at the I-J office in San Rafael to those who visit the office tomorrow. The ballot will also be repeated in tomorrow's paper.

Harry Dalton of the San Rafael auditing firm of Dalton, Graupner and Barber said his post office box was bulging this morning as the first surge of mailed ballots arrived. Unofficially, the count was understood to be running about 13 "no" votes to 1 "yes," but Dalton said he would have no official report until the final count is reported to the board of supervisors next week.

Dalton said in some instances man and wife have both signed the same ballot. "Only one vote per ballot," he ruled. He also declined to accept facsimile ballots. "Only the ballot printed in the I-J or the official reprint will be counted," he said.

Brown Details Plan To Fight Unemployment

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown announced a three-point program today to stimulate spending and combat unemployment during the current dip in business.

The recession has hit hard in some places, he said.

This is his program:

1. The governor assigned emergency priority to a bill by Assemblyman Vernon Kilpatrick (D-Lynwood) which would immediately release 30 million dollars in state funds to speed local school construction. Brown said release of the money would make it possible to build enough new classrooms to end double sessions and at the same time create employment.

2. Brown ordered state department heads to give priority to state building projects in areas of heavy unemployment.

3. The governor voiced general support for a bill by Sen. Stanford Shaw (D-Ontario) to lengthen the period of unemployment insurance payments.

The present law provides for an extra 13 weeks of benefits, or a total of 39 weeks, when statewide unemployment goes over 6 per cent. The Shaw bill calls for the additional payments on a regional basis and for the first quarter of the year only.

Kennedy, Rusk Confer On Policy

PALM BEACH, Fla. (P) — President-elect John F. Kennedy conferred today with the new administration's secretary of state, Dean Rusk, on foreign policy problems and organizational matters.

Rusk flew to Palm Beach last night after indicating in Washington, in testimony to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, that the Kennedy regime plans no immediate sharp departures in dealing with trouble spots around the globe.

Kennedy and Rusk scheduled a morning meeting and a luncheon session at the presidential-elect's ocean-front home.

$10 MILLION? Kennedy's Money Value Is Hinted

PALM BEACH, Fla. (P) — President-elect John F. Kennedy appears to have investment assets valued at perhaps up to $10 million dollars.

This was indicated last night when it was disclosed that Kennedy has converted all of his investments over which he had control into government bonds—federal, state and municipal.

Pierre Salinger, his press secretary, told newsmen in response to questions that the president-elect's total holdings now consist of such bonds, plus the houses he owns in Washington and at Hyannis Port, Mass., and three trust funds set up for him and his brothers and sisters by their father, Joseph P. Kennedy.

Salinger said the president-elect's income from these trusts—set up in 1926, 1936 and 1949—amounts to about $100,000 annually, after taxes. The income before taxes reportedly is about $500,000 a year.

Assuming interest at the rate of about 4 to 5 per cent, the funds could have a principal value of close to $10 million dollars, Kennedy has other holdings including the undisclosed value of investments he has converted into government bonds.

The three trusts are irrevocable, which means the president-elect has no control over investment of the principal. His mother reportedly is one of the trustees.

RETAINING AIDES

Kennedy announced he is retaining two Eisenhower administration officials.

Joseph Charyk will continue to serve as undersecretary of the Air Force.

Thomas D. Morris, now an assistant director of the Budget Bureau, will be assistant secretary of defense for supply and logistics.

The president-elect last night chose Edward Gudeman, Chicago investment banker, to be undersecretary of commerce.

Rusk arrived in Palm Beach a few hours after Kennedy had made public summaries of five study committee reports dealing with the international situation. All the groups were appointed by the president-elect.

ADVICE TO KENNEDY

One of the reports recommended that Kennedy "resist, insofar as possible . . . demands for early statements on the subject of arms control" and disarmament. The committee said the matter should be thoroughly debated within the administration and a clear policy worked out before any public stand is taken.

That committee also called for creation of a semi-autonomous agency, apparently within the State Department, for handling of disarmament policy and problems. It recommended that the head of such an agency work as an equal to the secretaries of state and defense.

The other study committee reports dealt with:

AFRICA—The report said that at present there is no integrated policy regarding the newly independent nations of that continent. The summary said the committee has suggested detailed programs, but they were not made public.

FOREIGN ECONOMIC POLICY

Unpublished suggestions were advanced for "strengthening United States leadership in the task of increasing international trade and developing vigorous economies abroad."

U.S. INFORMATION AGENCY—The report recommended that the new chief of the agency, which has the job of winning friends abroad for America, be designated as principal adviser to the president and the secretary of state on international information and cultural matters. The committee also urged that the director be

Marin Man Aids In Building Sale

Lou H. Hymans, Belvedere, a real estate broker in San Francisco, has announced the sale of a three-story building at Market, McAllister and Jones Streets in San Francisco at a price of about $600,000.

The identity of the buyers was not announced but Hymans said they were San Francisco investors. The property, which covers about 13,000 square feet and houses the Crocker-Anglo National Bank and the Columbia Music and Electronics, Inc., was sold by the Ungerleider Investing Corp. of New York.

Hymans has recently handled transactions involving a number of San Francisco downtown buildings.

SALES MAN AID FOR BEATING WIFE

Richard McDonald, 46-year-old San Rafael auto salesman, was arrested on charges of assault and battery and disturbing the peace today after his wife, Joan, called San Rafael police at 2:45 a.m.

When Officer Leo Schwab and Sgt. Thomas Stephenson arrived at the house at 2235 Fifth Avenue, they found Mrs. McDonald sitting alone on the living room couch. She had a black eye and bruises on her arms, the officers said.

She told police her husband had beaten her, but had since gone to bed. The police took McDonald to the county jail where he was booked and held in lieu of $315 bail.

LADIES' NIGHT PLANNED

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Ike Praises Herter

WASHINGTON (P) — President Eisenhower has praised his outgoing secretary of state, Christian A. Herter as never losing sight of "our main goals."

In a letter accepting Herter's resignation, effective Jan. 20, Eisenhower yesterday said: "Notwithstanding the periods of crisis and peril the years have brought—and will continue to bring—we have demonstrated our will for peace, while safeguarding and furthering justice and freedom."

Billboard Offer

WASHINGTON (P) — The Outdoor Advertising Assn. offered today to post emergency instructions on 12,000 billboards across the nation if an enemy attack seemed imminent.

Harry O'Mealia Jr., president of the advertising firm, and Civil Defense Director Leo A. Hoegh announced the plan. O'Mealia said basic survival instructions would be stored for quick display if a national emergency occurs.

Author Dies

NEW YORK (P) — Henry Morton Robinson, author of "The Cardinal" and other novels, died today in University Hospital from complications resulting from burns.

Widowed by the death of Humphrey Bogart four years ago, the 36-year-old blonde was a constant companion to Robards, 39, for the past several months. "We'll be married sometime this year," the actor said. "But it will have to wait until I get my divorce."

Lauren Bacall To Wed

HOLLYWOOD (P) — Lauren Bacall will marry actor Jason Robards Jr. before the year is out, Robards announced today.

Widowed by the death of Humphrey Bogart four years ago, the 36-year-old blonde was a constant companion to Robards, 39, for the past several months. "We'll be married sometime this year," the actor said. "But it will have to wait until I get my divorce."

Brown Plane Mishap

SACRAMENTO (P) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown's private plane suffered a "power drop" last night as it was flying the governor and several other passengers from Los Angeles to the capital. Brown's office reported that the fuel pressure dropped as the plane was flying over the San Joaquin Valley in the vicinity of Merced, but the situation corrected itself within minutes.

Gas Costing More

SAN FRANCISCO (P) — Natural gas imported from Texas is costing California more and more each year, the State Public Utilities Commission said in a report to Gov. Edmund G. Brown yesterday.

The PUC's report, for the fiscal year ended June 30, said 81 per cent of utility rate increases it authorized were to offset higher charges for out-of-state natural gas.

Borgnine, Wife Split

SANTA MONICA (P) — Actor Ernest Borgnine and Katy Jurado are carrying their quarrel to the courtroom.

Their one-year marriage, enlivened by many a spat, fell apart yesterday when Borgnine sued for divorce, charging cruelty. Borgnine, 43, wants his Mexican actress wife to pay for the divorce.

Declared Insane

WACO, Tex. (P) — Claude R. Eatherly, 41, the Texas war hero who led the world's first atomic bombing missions over Japan, was declared insane yesterday by a McLennan County jury.

By its verdict the jury committed the World War II pilot to the Veterans Administration hospital here for treatment of what psychiatrists called "schizophrenic reaction."

Dillon Says Tax Reform To Be Asked

WASHINGTON (P) — Treasury secretary designate Douglas Dillon said today the Kennedy administration will ask Congress to enact a tax reform program this year.

Dillon, appearing at a Senate finance committee confirmation hearing, said tax reforms should be given urgent attention.

"It is one of the major questions facing the new administration," he said. "It would be hoped to get some action at this session of Congress."

Dillon did not discuss details of the program which he said have not been worked out yet. But he said the Treasury would present some of the key proposals to Congress by April 1.

The Senate group, headed by Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) completed its questioning of Dillon this morning. Byrd said the nominee who has been undersecretary of state in the Eisenhower administration had been "very frank" and answered questions "in fine fashion."

Uruguay Orders Cuba, Soviet Envoys To Leave

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (P) — The Uruguayan government has ordered the Cuban ambassador and the Soviet Embassy's first secretary out of the country, charging they were connected with pro-Castro demonstrations and street fights.

The expulsion order was voted last night by Uruguay's nine-man governing council, which reportedly is split 5-4 against an outright break in diplomatic relations with Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime.

The decision declaring Cuban Ambassador Mario Garcia Inchaustegui and Soviet First Secretary Mikhail K. Samilov persona non grata brought still another demonstration by admirers of Castro. A crowd of about 4,000 gathered in Montevideo's streets, shouting "Cuba yes! Yankees no!"

A force of 1,500 police prevented any violence.

The governing council acted after police stormed into Communist headquarters here Wednesday, and arrested 139 persons and seized documents.

Officials said the raid was on a judge's order to arrest persons who beat an anti-Castro partisan to death in front of the headquarters. So far no one has been charged with the death.

ANOTHER CASTRO PLOT? Havana Press Claims U.S. Torture Of Cuban

HAVANA (P) — The official press and radio today accused U.S. officers at Guantanamo Bay of torturing a suspected spy. The charges could mark the start of a major effort to drive the United States out of the big naval bases.

Premier Fidel Castro was expected to address a mass meeting outside the Cuban "White House" later today.

Government-controlled newspapers and radio broadcasts said Manuel Prieto Gomez, a Cuban employed at the base, was taken unconscious to a Guantanamo City hospital Saturday after more than 11 hours' questioning by U.S. officers.

Prieto was quoted as saying the Americans fed him "several pills" to force him to confess stealing a list of personnel stationed at the base.

"They tortured me after accusing me deliberately and unfairly . . ." the press quoted him as saying. "I was kicked and threatened by an officer who said 'now that we've severed (diplomatic) relations, I'll tear your head off unless you confess.'"

The official accounts gave no details of the "inhuman and brutal tortures" to which they said Prieto was subjected. They said his pregnant wife and children were forced to watch the incident. It was unclear what Prieto's family was doing at the base.

Diplomats speculated that Castro would adopt some new anti-U.S. propaganda line since his much-advertised American "invasion" has not materialized.

Appeals Court To Hear Hayden Ex-Wife's Plea

The proposed European trip for Belvedere actor Sterling Hayden and his children is off again, at least until Jan. 23, when the District Court of Appeals considers the appeal of his former wife.

Mrs. Betty Ann DeNoon, the actor's former wife, had appealed to the district court to stop the European trip. Yesterday, the district court temporarily blocked Hayden from taking his children out of California. The district court set Jan. 23 as the date for the next hearing.

Hayden had not planned to leave until spring, anyhow.

Cleaning Business Is First In New Fair-Anselm Center

The first firm to start doing business in the new Fair-Anselm Shopping Center on Center Boulevard in Fairfax opened its doors today.

Marin Cleaners, Inc., which has maintained its principal plant at 520 Fourth Street, San Rafael, since 1950 and another "package plant" in Bel Aire off Tiburon Boulevard, became a pioneer tenant in the Center Boulevard project which has been under construction since last May.

Bert Brown, president of the firm, said the Fair-Anselm site is approximately the same size as the one in Bel Aire—1,200 square feet, and is furnished with the latest type of automatic conveyor equipment.

He said it will also give one-day cleaning and dress shirt laundry service as is done in his other locations, and three-day pick-up and delivery service. The company does its own cleaning in San Rafael.

Brown, a San Rafael resident, has been in the cleaning business for 30 years. He formerly owned establishments in Petaluma and San Francisco.

McGraw-Hill To Show Off New Center

McGraw-Hill Book Co. will show off its new $800,000 western headquarters and distribution center in Corte Madera's Fifer Industrial Park at two open house parties next week.

Employees of the book company, of McGraw-Hill Publishing Co. (publisher of periodicals), and McGraw-Hill of California (publisher of electrical West and Western Architect and Engineer) will gather for a "family party" from 5 to 7 p.m. Tuesday.

About 120 Marin County and city officials and civic leaders have been invited to a cocktail party from 5:30 to 7 p.m. next Friday to view the new plant.

About 150 employees, husbands and wives will attend Tuesday's party. Several McGraw-Hill executives and their wives from New York will be present. They include Donald C. McGraw, chairman of the board and president of the publishing Co.; Curtis G. Benjamin, chairman of the board of the book company; Nelson Bond, president of the publications division; George Tenney, retired staff vice president and former president of McGraw-Hill of California, who has just moved to Sausalito from New York, also will attend. Host will be Harry P. Graves of Kentfield, vice president and general manager of the book company's Pacific district.

WASHBURN DISSENTS

College 'Junkets' Ripped By Trustee

George G. Washburn, College of Marin trustee who has often stated his opposition to what he terms junkets for teachers and board members, last night cast the lone vote against trustee attendance at a junior college conference.

He also voiced the only dissenting vote on a proposal to send Herbert A. Blanchett, the college's coordinator of publications, to a conference of junior college public relations officials.

The conference to which the other four trustees voted to send themselves, the director, president and vice president, will be held in Bakersfield on March 24 and 25 and is being sponsored by the California Junior College Assn.

The aim of the association, to which the college belongs and pays dues, is to "improve the entire service of junior colleges through conferences on education," Washburn was told by Director Stephen E. Epler.

"Just how would board members benefit by such a trip?" Washburn asked the director. "I believe board members could gain a lot by attendance. My own observation is that trustees who do attend regularly are from junior college districts which are leaders in the state," Epler said.

Epler estimated the trip would cost the district about $60 per person.

"I hope you can find the time to attend one of these conferences some time," Epler told Washburn.

"My conscience would not allow me to attend," Washburn replied.

His vote against sending Blanchett to a conference of the American College Public Relations Assn. in Pacific Palisades on Jan. 25-27 was on the basis that Blanchett "is not a public relations man."

"At the advice of the county counsel, this man was hired as a coordinator of publications," Washburn said. "His attendance at a meeting of public relations men could be looked on as a subterfuge as to his job and could be the basis for a taxpayers' suit." Cost of Blanchett's trip was set at $66.70.

(A ruling by County Counsel E. Warren McGuire in October was that "community services" could not come under Blanchett's jurisdiction. He advised the trustees Blanchett could be hired as "coordinator of publications" rather than publicity man. Washburn voted against Blanchett's employment.)

Other than Washburn, board members did not indicate whether they would attend the Bakersfield conference.

At last night's meeting he made motions to approve payment of $27.96 to Cal Riemcke, basketball coach, for expenses incurred in scouting basketball teams, and $15.82 to Dr. George Ball for the expense of attending a workshop on teaching machines at San Jose State College on Jan. 7.

CAT BECOMES CENTER OF LABOR TIFF

VAN NUYS (P)—If Mister Tom the cat gets the gate, the state may be asked to arbitrate.

That's the essence of a labor-management crisis developing at Pacific Mercury Electronics Corp. Mister Tom has been the plant mascot there, has even become an honorary member of the union.

But now comes a new chief security officer. He says Mister Tom has certain substandard hygienic habits. The cat, he says, must go.

The workers reacted with a petition bearing 300 pro-cat signatures. But security remained firm.

So, next week, a union grievance committee will meet with management. If that fails, says a union official, "we shall submit the matter to the state conciliation service for arbitration."

4.4 Million Unemployed Highest In 20 Years

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Unemployment shot up to 4,450,000 last month, the highest December jobless level in 20 years, the government reported today.

From November to December, the number of persons out of work and looking for jobs jumped by 509,000, which was three times more than normal.

The Labor Department also disclosed in its monthly report on the job situation that in the last week of December some three million persons were collecting unemployment insurance—the greatest number ever for a Christmas week.

The big December rise lifted the national jobless rate to 6.8 per cent compared to 6.3 per cent in November. This meant that 68 of every 1,000 men, women and teenagers in the labor force were looking for jobs last month.

The December jobless figure made it virtually certain that when president-elect John F.

Kennedy takes office Jan. 20, there will be some 5.5 million Americans unemployed.

Economists consider an unemployment rate above 5 per cent a symptom of weakness in the economy. January usually sees unemployment go up by about one million.

The total number of job holders dropped by 1,173,000 in December, a greater than seasonal decline.

The report showed that the number of jobs declined in December in all 21 manufacturing industry groups tabulated by the Labor Department.

Manufacturing employment last month totaled 15,846,000. This was 288,000 less than in November and 638,000 jobs less than December, 1959.

The idea of concentrating iron ores is not new. It was first introduced on Minnesota's Mesabi range in 1907.

College Trustees Vote Payment Of Damages

College of Marin trustees last night approved payment of $5,270 in damages to J. L. Macaulay, one of seven teachers who sued the district in 1958 over tenure rights and loss of pay after the college dropped the San Quentin Prison education program.

The courts had ruled that Macaulay was eligible for tenure at the college after the San Quentin program ended in 1955. The sum paid his represents pay he would have received had he been teaching under his proper status at the college during 1955-56.

ANOTHER RULING

The trustees were also informed by the county counsel that judgment had been rendered in favor of Philip Ruby, another of the San Quentin teachers.

Ruby, who had been dismissed after the San Quentin program ended on a finding that he had not served four years with the college district, was awarded $1,964 when the court ruled that he should have been paid on a contract basis instead of by the hour.

A library report, given the trustees by Charles D. Mastin, librarian, indicated that use of the library had increased by about 20 per cent since the beginning of the school year.

CIRCULATION JUMPS

The average daily circulation of books jumped from about 100 to 120 daily withdrawals during the three-and-one-half month period.

Approval was given a revised calendar for the school year which would set graduation day on June 11, 1961, four days before final examinations are completed.

The establishment of graduation day before examinations ended was recommended by Director Stephen E. Epler, to insure a higher attendance at the final ceremonies.

The trustees said they recognized the possibility that some few students who would have gone through the ceremony might not be eligible to graduate after the examinations had been graded. It was felt, however, that the increased attendance at the graduation was sufficiently important to warrant the dis-appointment to those few students who might fail.

In other action last night, the trustees:

1. Approved sending an invitation to Dr. Clarence P. Shedd of Yale University to deliver the commencement address at a fee of $200.
2. Approved employment of four teachers at $5.50 an hour for evening credit classes. They are Ronald Hurt, mechanical engineering; Berkeley Johnson, intermediate algebra; Albert Lavin, English, and Harry Pieper, first aid.
3. Approved establishment of a daytime course in journalism to supplement the present journalism course. It would be a three-hour a week laboratory course.
4. Accepted a report on the Associated Students Fund which showed a balance of $10,721 on Dec. 31, 1960.
5. Approved use of college facilities by six organizations for classes and meetings.
6. Authorized the board chairman to appoint a committee of at least six to plan a Founders Day program.
7. Voted, on the recommendation of Chairman Elizabeth M. Deedy, that a dean's list of students with exceptional grades be instituted and posted.

Bagley Puts In Resolution

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Marin-Sonoma's new assemblyman, William T. Bagley of San Rafael, put his first resolution through the Assembly yesterday.

It was in the form of an Assembly-Senate concurrent resolution required for some changes in the city charter of Santa Rosa. State Sen. Joseph J. Rattigan of Sonoma won its approval in the Senate. Bagley introduced it in the Assembly.

It was a shoo-in. The vote was 73 to 0.

Due At Inaugural

Among the 575 cadets of the Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn., who will march in the inaugural parade in Washington on Jan. 20 will be Cadet S/c Walker H. Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Collins of 219 Los Angeles Boulevard, San Anselmo. He is a 1957 graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School.

Ross Council Ponders 'Stilt House' Pleas

The case of "stilt houses" was held open in Ross last night when the town council denied one variance but continued an application for an identical variance to the Feb. 9 meeting.

The variances from front setbacks were sought by Western Metals Structures, a building firm headed by William J. Keener of Tiburon, who wish to build two homes on steel stilts on a hillside at the top of Baywood Avenue.

The zoning ordinance requires a 25-foot setback. The design of the two homes call for no setback with the stilts, which include a carport, reaching to the property line. The two variances were sought for the two adjoining lots.

Opposing construction of the homes were about 30 persons, most of them members of the newly formed Town of Ross Property Owners Assn. which is headed by Dr. Ernest W. Denicke, an eye doctor of 51 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Architect Felix M. Warburg, representing the developers, said he would present revised plans for the second lot at the next meeting, Feb. 9. He would attempt, he said, to utilize a setback of at least 10 feet.

CENTER

other purpose would take four votes.

Fusselman made no claim that a fourth vote could be won from either Walter R. Castro or William Gnos, who voted Tuesday against stopping work on the civic center building, but he said "this whole argument is a lot of sheer nonsense."

"The civic center fund is not the administration building at the civic center," said Fusselman. "The civic center on the contrary is very obviously a complex, in which the administration building was merely one detail."

"It is in the power of the supervisors by 3-2 vote to indicate what they want in that complex. By majority they could decide to go ahead with the jail, they could put juvenile hall there if they wanted to, and if it is feasible now to change the building under construction into a hospital, that can be done by a simple majority. It needs no 4-1 vote."

"This is my firm view and I am getting legal confirmation."

Fusselman said no meeting had been called for this afternoon.

"Neither myself nor the clerk ever called such a meeting," said he. "It would be impossible to hold one because as it happens, neither Supervisors J. Walter Blair or George Ludy would be free to attend."

Since rumor had spread widely concerning a purported 3:30 p.m. session, hasty counter-advice had to be put out by many who had asked their friends to "pass the word for a big turn-out."

Fusselman said he had conferred with the architectural firm of Crawford and Banning and had assurance of an early answer to the supervisors' question as to whether it would be feasible to resume the civic center work, interrupted at noon Wednesday by the stop order, on a basis of conversion to hospital.

No exact date has been set for completion of the investigation.

"Meanwhile the civic center money is on time deposit and earning interest," Fusselman added.

A letter to the board of supervisors from Rothschild, Raffin and Wetrich, builders of the civic center administration building on a $3,230,200 contract, notifying compliance with the stop-work order was received today by the county clerk.

It agreed to stopping work temporarily, "in any event not to exceed a period of 30 days." While setting forth no cost figures on the stop-work, it said, "We and our subcontractors and suppliers will incur substantial unanticipated and additional expense."

Stockstad and others of the Citizens for the Civic Center Committee were meanwhile putting on forced draft for a big turnout at a meeting set for 8 o'clock tonight in Olney Hall of College of Marin in Kentfield.

"Even if there are as many as 70,000 registered voters in Marin County, I believe we may put on record more than half of these as favoring continuation of the civic center," said Stockstad.

The civic center debate seemed assuredly headed for a heated airing at the board of supervisors' meeting at 1 p.m. Monday.

It will get yet another airing Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Bermuda Palms in San Rafael under sponsorship of Marin Young Republicans. Gordon Ness, president of the Young Republicans, announced the group's executive committee voted last night to hold a public civic center debate at that time. Members of the board of supervisors and leaders of the Committee for the Civic Center will be invited to speak, he said.

Meanwhile, telephones at the Independent-Journal rang constantly with every sort of query about the issue. Most of the calls were from residents wanting to get more ballots for the I-J straw vote.

There are about 600 registered voters in the district, Stratton said.

Polling places for the election have been designated as the Inverness Firehouse and West Marin School.

Juanita Musson, operator of Juanita's Gallery in Sausalito, is resting in Ross General Hospital after collapsing from overwork Monday.

Hospital officials describe Miss Musson's condition as "good," and report she is resting comfortably.

She is 37 and resides at 74 Waterlee Street in Sausalito when away from her gallery.

Officers have not ruled out the possibility of arson.

The boys who tried to save the animals were William Peters, 14, and Charles Johnson, 14, of San Geronimo and Dennis Korth, 12, of Woodacre. They were aided by B. J. Stawowy, who lives across the street from the kennels, and a telephone lineman identified as J. A. Rostin. Edward J. Cornwell of Forest Knolls, who happened to drive by, went to the fire department for help.

Stawowy also called firemen by telephone.

Citizens Council Names President

Jan Paul Dyk has been elected president of the Sausalito Citizens Council, the board of directors announced today, to replace Byron W. Mayo who resigned Tuesday because of demands of his business.

Dyk, who lives at 122 Crescent Avenue, is freight manager with the Holland-America line in San Francisco. He has been vice president of the council and will take over the presidency at once, serving out Mayo's term due to expire at mid-year.

The council, which has about 300 members, is a civic organization dedicated to the study and active participation in community affairs.

Absentee Ballots Are Picked Up

Thirty-six absentee ballots for next Tuesday's bond election in the West Marin School District were picked up before yesterday's deadline. Supt. George Stratton announced today.

The election will determine passage of a $26,200 bond issue and whether the district may borrow $100,000 from the state for construction of additional classrooms.

There are about 600 registered voters in the district, Stratton said.

Polling places for the election have been designated as the Inverness Firehouse and West Marin School.

County Farm Bureau Officers To Be Picked

Four County Farm Bureau members have been appointed by bureau directors as a nominating committee for new officers.

Officers will be elected at the annual meeting Feb. 22, at a place still to be named. On the nominating committee are A. J. Bianchi, Point Reyes Station, chairman; James Grossi, Novato; Fred Lafranchi, Nicasio, and Roy Parks, Tomales.

pite protests by several representatives of rifle teams and shooting associations.

McLeran emphasized that the main floor of the gymnasium was safe but that the balconies have only 27-inch hallways through which people might escape.

"This is not a demand that the gym be closed," McLeran said, "but that does not detract from the seriousness of the situation."

A complete report on the condition of the building is due within two weeks from the state fire marshal. McLeran told the board. "Until his report is in, there is little point in trying to do anything about it," the chief said.

A delegation of more than 30 shooters, led by George H. Finney, president of the Marin Rod and Gun Junior Rifle Club, attended the meeting to oppose closing of the range.

"Our club has trained over 4,000 boys and girls in marksmanship and hunter safety," Finney said. "About 1,500 kids a year use the range. We have a training group starting next week and we don't want them to lose interest."

The college range is the only indoor range in the county which can be used the year round, the board was told.

Sheriff's Lt. Sidney Stinson, praising the safety program of the various rifle groups, told trustees his department had investigated 57 accidents in the past three or four years in which untrained youngsters were injured by firearms. He said, however, that his department agreed with the fire chief's recommendation.

"I feel the board would be very remiss if we did not act now on this matter," said Chairman Elizabeth M. Deedy. "The board does not want to be responsible for an accident to a child."

It was the opinion of several of the rifle club representatives that an additional exit could easily be put in the basement, making the room safe for use.

The inspections by the firemen were part of a general appraisal of campus buildings now being conducted by the architectural firm of Falk and Booth, who are drawing up a general plan for the college.

On recommendation of Mark Falk, the board also agreed to ask the state fire marshal to make a complete inspection of the library building. "The marshal told me an extreme problem existed in the basement of the building," Falk said.

The section indicated by the marshal houses the dark rooms of the photographic department and is in an older section of the building. The marshal's inspection did not include the entire building, Falk said. He looked in the basement at the suggestion of Theodore A. Stolte, an associate of Falk and Booth.

A report by the architects on "space adequacy and material condition" of the college buildings will be made at the trustees' Jan. 26 meeting, Falk said.

The board was also told last night that a termite and dry rot inspection by J. T. Urban, a termite inspector, resulted in an estimated $15,670 to repair damages to the gymnasium, science building and Harlan Hall.

The board agreed to consult the county counsel as to whether to seek bids on the repair job. There is a possibility, trustees said, that at least part of the work might be done by the school's custodial staff.

Span Board To Seek Vista Point Fund Data

Golden Gate Bridge District directors today voted to get Army Corps of Engineers and State Division of Highways figures on the land required for a direct Marin approach to Vista Point at the north end of the bridge.

The action came on insistence of Marin director Leland S. Murphy, who refused to vote for an authorization to appropriate funds for an Army Engineer review of land needed for a Marin viaduct unless the Vista Point approach survey were included.

"My people over there have to pay two tolls and I don't think it's right," declared Murphy. (To drive to Vista Point, favorite lookout spot for viewing the bay, from Marin it is necessary to cross the bridge, turn around and drive back.) Adam objected that "this is under jurisdiction of the State Division of Highways."

Put in director William Hadeler of San Francisco: "If the state isn't going to do this, we certainly ought to do it."

Peter Gasser, Napa director, agreed that formal application should be made to both state and federal agencies "and get it done once and for all." Instructions for such application, to be made by Adam to the appropriate officials, were included in the motion as passed.

Palsy March Scheduled For Tuesday

Final plans are being made for the annual "53 Minute March on Cerebral Palsy" next Tuesday night, Mrs. William H. Hickman, president of United Cerebral Palsy of Marin, announced today.

The march will take place between 7 and 9 p.m. in most areas of the county.

Mrs. Hickman said hundreds of telephone calls have been made to recruit volunteers and many hours of time spent in assembling campaign kits in preparation for the "march."

Additional volunteers are needed in several areas of the county. Anyone willing to help may call one of the area chairmen: Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Sideroff, Novato; Mrs. Richard Paganini, Marinwood; Mrs. Kenneth I. Simmons, Terra Linda; Mrs. Robin Hobart, Tiburon and Belvedere; Mrs. Fred H. Creel, Mill Valley; Mrs. Sidney Heller, San Rafael; Mrs. Max Robertson, Sausalito; Mrs. John Benedict, Ross.

Mrs. Ida Meagor, 89-year-old San Rafael widow, has filed a $33,000 damage suit in Marin Superior Court for injuries suffered when a car backed into her on May 22 last year.

She filed the suit through attorney Robert Corlett, against Leslie W. Burd and his wife Muriel of 5 Bayview Street, San Rafael.

Mrs. Meagor says she was walking on a sidewalk alongside Bayview Street when Burd backed his car out of his driveway, knocking her to the ground. She alleges she suffered severe injuries including fractures.

The suit asks for $30,000 general damages, more than $3,000 for medical bills, and other expenses.

Youth Suspected Of Molesting Girl

A 16-year-old ranch worker, employed at the Radio Corp. of America Ranch in Point Reyes, is suspected of molesting a 4-year-old girl last Monday, sheriff's deputies disclosed today.

The youth is the son of a Radio Corp. of America executive. He has been cited to appear at the Marin County Probation Office on Tuesday.

The girl, daughter of a milkman on the ranch, told her parents he had offered her candy and told her to keep quiet. Deputy Sheriff Kenneth Irving and Inspector Guido Battaglia investigated the incident. The youth denies he molested the girl in any way.

Rev. McAlister Undergoes Surgery

Rev. Daniel McAlister, administrator of St. Raphael's Parish in San Rafael, was reported to be making satisfactory progress today after surgery Tuesday at St. Mary's Hospital in San Francisco.

Father McAlister was expected to require a rather lengthy period of recuperation and his return from the hospital is not expected for several weeks, it was said today.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Freitas Dies At 41

Mrs. Amelia M. Freitas, 41, died yesterday in a local hospital after undergoing surgery the day before.

A Marin County resident for two years, Mrs. Freitas resided with her husband, Manuel P., on the H-Ranch in Inverness where he is a milker.

She was a native of Massachusetts.

Funeral services and burial will be in Fall River, Mass. Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, is in charge of local arrangements.

MABEL COX

Mable Cox, 79, a former resident of Larkspur, died Wednesday in Tulare after a long illness. Her husband, with whom she had lived at 2 Palm Court, died last October.

Mrs. Cox came to Larkspur in 1946 and moved to Tulare last June. Several of her poems have been published and at one time she was president of a local writers' club.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at the Goble Mortuary in Tulare.

Damage Suit Asks $33,000

Mrs. Ida Meagor, 89-year-old San Rafael widow, has filed a $33,000 damage suit in Marin Superior Court for injuries suffered when a car backed into her on May 22 last year.

She filed the suit through attorney Robert Corlett, against Leslie W. Burd and his wife Muriel of 5 Bayview Street, San Rafael.

Mrs. Meagor says she was walking on a sidewalk alongside Bayview Street when Burd backed his car out of his driveway, knocking her to the ground. She alleges she suffered severe injuries including fractures.

The suit asks for $30,000 general damages, more than $3,000 for medical bills, and other expenses.

Meeting Slated On Gas Line Plan

A Pacific Gas and Electric Co. representative will explain details of the company's plan to bring natural gas to the Black Point area tonight.

An open meeting with the representative is planned at 8:30 p.m. at the Byron McDonald residence, 81 Manzanita Drive, at which residents may ask questions about the plan.

The company has announced plans to provide natural gas to the area if at least 134 persons sign up for it by June 15. The $151,800 line will come only if 134 residents put up $50 deposit each and agree to subscribe to the service for at least three years.

Mission Avenue Gets Divider Strip

Mission Avenue got a white divider stripe between B and H Streets in San Rafael this week.

It was painted on Tuesday by city crews. Public Works Supervisor Norris Rawles said the line was put on because cars have a tendency to swing into the other lane when turning on the narrow street.

Transit Directors Plan June, 1962, Bond Issue Election

Bay Area Rapid Transit District directors agreed yesterday to try to submit the $996,700,000 rapid transit bond issue to the voters at the June, 1962, primary election.

It was the first date set by the 16-man board for presenting the plan to the five Bay Area counties. A two-thirds majority is required to pass the bonds.

Directors also set Aug. 1 as the target date to submit final rapid transit plans to the supervisors of the five counties. Approval must be unanimous.

The district now is acting on recommendations from the cities and counties of the district on the tentative plans. Up to now $70,700,000 of extended lines have been added to the original 926-million-dollar plan. Two of these have been in Contra Costa County and one—approved yesterday—extends the Alameda County transit line from Hayward to Fremont.

Also at yesterday's meeting San Rafael's station in the proposed plan was changed from an aerial to a ground level station.

Directors acted on a letter

Bob Kennedy, Goldberg Given Endorsements

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Judiciary Committee today approved without objection the nomination of Robert F. Kennedy to be attorney general in his brother's cabinet.

At the same time, Arthur J. Goldberg was unanimously and swiftly approved for secretary of labor by the Senate Labor Committee. He was the first President-elect John F. Kennedy's cabinet choices to win recommendation that he be confirmed by the Senate.

The action on Kennedy—unanimous by members present—came after GOP committee members raised some questions about the legal experience of the president-elect's 35-year-old brother.

Easements Accepted

Easements from William M. McGovern and the Marin County Abstract and Title Co. were accepted by directors of the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District last night for sewer lines of the district running through Terra Linda Valley.

The approval took only a few minutes at a closed-door session which followed a two-hour open hearing.

Democrats on the Senate Judiciary Committee defended his selection.

Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.), who was Kennedy's boss as chairman of the Senate Rackets Committee, moved that the committee approve the nomination of his former chief counsel.

Chairman James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) announced that the vote was unanimous with only Sen. William A. Blakley (D-Tex.) unrecorded.

Another cabinet nominee, Abraham A. Ribicoff, who has been named secretary of health, education and welfare, won the strong endorsement of Chairman Harry F. Byrd of the Senate Finance Committee.

Byrd, after hearing the Connecticut governor testify, told him: "I think you'll get a unanimous vote in the finance committee and a unanimous vote in the Senate."

'WHITHER COUNTY GOVERNMENT?'

Letters To I-J Congratulate, Lash Civic Center Stoppage

The first letters in support of the Marin County Board of Supervisors majority's action in stopping work on the county civic center were received by the Independent-Journal today.

Among 13 letters in this morning's mail were two supporting the stop-work. The 11 others followed the uniform pattern of opposition in all letters received yesterday and Wednesday.

"I wish to congratulate the supervisors on stopping work on the Santa Venetia project," wrote Mrs. Florence Stackhouse of Sausalito, who took part in the successful fight last year to prevent fluoridation of Marin Municipal Water District's water supplies.

"It was fantastic to put a county courthouse in the midst of a county fairgrounds, in a remote part of the county," said Mrs. Stackhouse's letter.

The other letter supporting the stop-work came from Mrs. Virgil Jones of Mill Valley.

"I would like a Cadillac or Lincoln car to drive," wrote Mrs. Jones. "But my husband and I can't afford a Cadillac or Lincoln car, no more than Marin County, which has absolutely no tax paying industry to pay the bill, could afford that multi-million dollar civic center. . . . We can't pay our bills with beauty and good wishes of tourists."

Mrs. Jones enclosed a copy of a letter to the supervisors in which she expressed "heartfelt thanks" to the board majority for stopping work on the civic center, called "shocking" the amount of "so-called welfare that is being tolerated in this county," and asked: "How efficient is the hired help in the Marin County employ? . . . How many of these new appointees could be disposed of, so that we taxpayers might get our taxes lowered, and not have to continue to live in horror of the confiscation of our homes?"

Mrs. Thelma Schultz of Mill Valley suggested that the Independent-Journal "maintain a section . . . devoted to a running total of expenses involved" in the civic center work shutdown. "Those who herald this short-sighted action as an 'economy move' may soon discover that they need a refresher course in mathematics—or at least in the development of problems," she wrote.

Charles L. Gardiner of San Anselmo wrote that "I located in this county because of its great natural beauty and because a building designed by a man of Frank Lloyd Wright's stature speaks elo-quently for an enlightened government and a progressive community. Expediency and the resulting ugliness and inefficiency are high prices to pay for temporary economies."

A San Rafael man employed by the county, who asked that his name be withheld "because of the possibility of reprisal or prejudice," wrote:

"A sort of sinking feeling develops deep inside when I consider the question 'whither county government?' in the light of the civic center debacle."

Mrs. William G. Thompson of Corte Madera wrote: "I am sure this move will cost the taxpayers more money and 'loss of face' than he (Chairman William D. Fusselman of the board of supervisors) can imagine."

"Obviously, Mr. Fusselman knows nothing of what it costs to alter a major project such as this," wrote William J. Young of Fairfax.

In a letter addressed to the board of supervisors, Jeanne Johnson of Marinwood asserted: "These proceedings are those of immaturity and impetuosity rather than the strength, wisdom and leadership one would expect and need of supervisors of a county like Marin."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. O'Connor of Mill Valley both signed a letter declaring, "To stop work on the civic center at this point would seem to be the utmost extravagance."

Mrs. Beryl Collett of San Rafael, describing herself as a new resident, wrote: "To find out that a body of three men can stop progress of a development that would be both beautiful and utilitarian to all of Northern California is very sad and discouraging indeed."

Auto Accident Hurts Woman

Fog-slick surface of the Redwood Highway Wednesday night contributed to a two-car accident near Sausalito in which a woman was injured.

Both cars were northbound at 10:40 p.m. near the Monte Mar Drive intersection. Angel Joseph Landau, San Francisco machinist, told the California Highway Patrol that a car ahead of him slowed as he was running 55 to 60 miles an hour. Landau braked sharply and the car spun across the freeway. A car driven by Robert Kenneth Weeks of 150 Corte Balboa, Greenbrae, struck Landau's vehicle and pushed it into the guard rail.

Mrs. Jeanne Weeks, a passenger with her husband, was treated for a sprained neck at Marin General Hospital.

'Unloaded' Gun Injures Woman

Mrs. Mary Strum, 26, Berkeley resident, accidentally shot herself in the hand Wednesday while examining guns in a collection at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Farnham. She was described in "satisfactory condition" in Marin General Hospital today with a gunshot wound of the left hand.

Mrs. Strum visiting the Farnhams, was with their 22-year-old son, Larry, when one of the guns, a single shot .22 caliber pistol, firing, striking her hand.

The Farnhams, who live on Glenwood Avenue, were not aware the pistol was loaded, Ross police said.

MATTHEW A. GRAHAM
New bridge president

Graham Voted President Of Bridge Board

Matthew A. Graham of San Anselmo, a San Rafael insurance counselor, was elected unanimously today to a two-year term as president of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District.

Graham, 76, succeeds Dan London, San Francisco hotel man, as head of the six-county district.

One of two Marin directors on the bridge board, Graham was first appointed to the board on Nov. 10, 1942. He was renamed to his fifth four-year term two years ago. A native of San Francisco, he moved to Marin in 1919 and has lived here ever since, at present at 68 Scenic Avenue.

His unopposed election follows usual bridge board procedure of moving the vice presidents into the presidency. Graham has been first vice president for the past two years.

Serving on a number of bridge committees, he has been the long-time chairman of the roads and highways committee.

Graham immediately took over his new position and conducted today's meeting of the bridge board, first of the new year.

AMERICAN CONFERENCE

Castro Entrenched, Bay Area Group Told

A former Cuban ambassador to Canada, now clearly identifying himself among those who "are going to overthrow Castro," predicted last night that only "strife and bloodshed" would unseat the Cuban dictator.

Luis A. Baralt Jr., who served briefly as Fidel Castro's ambassador to Canada until he became disenchanted with the Cuban president in mid-1959, told a meeting on the United States and Latin America that "Castro appears strong enough to last indefinitely." However, he said, it is possible that his popular support has "decreased more than he suspects."

Baralt addressed an open meeting of the American Assembly's conference, sponsored by the World Affairs Council of Northern California in San Francisco's Mark Hopkins Hotel. The conference continues through tomorrow. Marin was well represented among the 65 at the meeting.

Baralt declared there is no doubt now that Castro is a communist. He may not take orders from Moscow, Baralt declared; he is "independent like Tito and Mao Tse-tung." But he has carried out the communist system, although originally violently opposed to its precepts.

Now he means to "liberate" all of South America, Baralt went on. "He looks upon himself as a modern day Bolivar."

Although he was hailed when he expelled Fulgencio Batista from the island nation, he has now "earned the scorn of much of the world" and has "alienated more than half of his own population." There are "no signs of an election" in Cuba and probably won't be, declared Baralt.

The United States took the wrong attitude in assisting Batista for seven years, said Baralt. Then, after Castro came to power, it alienated him by disdain for his regime.

Baralt said, however, that Castro "probably would have found the road to radicalism" in any event. "The worst thing the United States could do now would be to try to win him over," he said.

"The only solution now is a counter-revolution," Baralt declared.

The diplomat said that individual Americans could help by "contributing privately to forces dedicated to the overthrow" of the dictator.

Discussing the rest of Latin America, Baralt said many South Americans would like "more positive" leadership from the United States, but that it should be more subtle. For example, he said the U.S. shouldn't be crying about the Monroe Doctrine, which is a unilateral document, but about the charter of the Organization of American States.

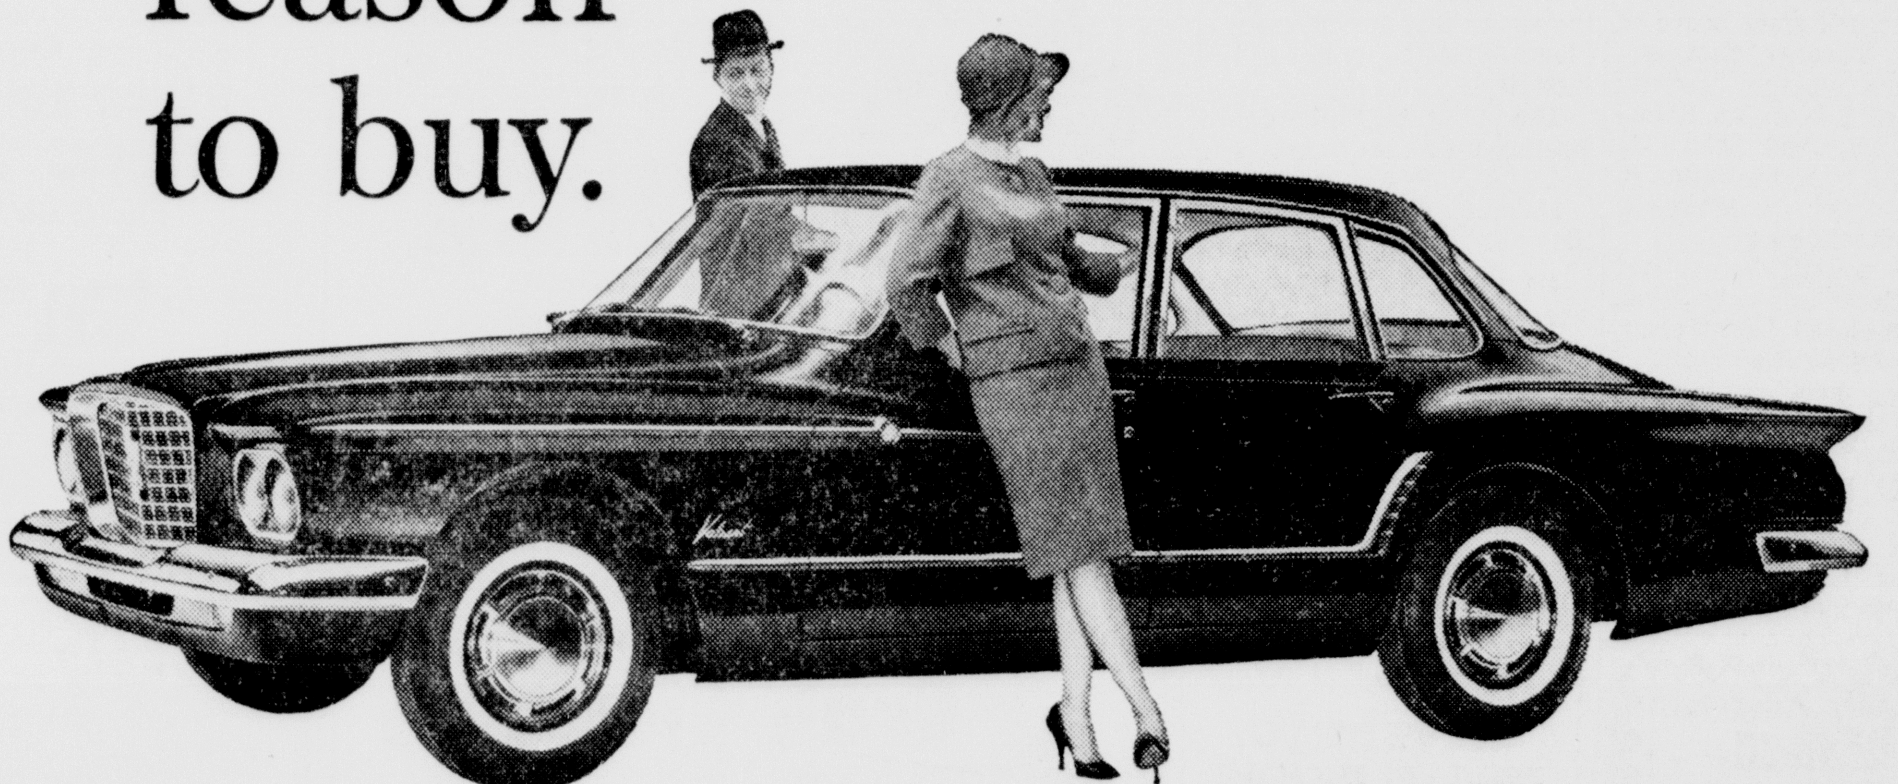

Baralt declared President Eisenhower was "justified, but not wise" in breaking relations with Cuba.

NAACP To Meet

The Marin County Branch of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People will meet Sunday at 3:30 p.m. at the home of president Edward T. Anderson to discuss participation in the Freedom Fund fight to provide money and clothing for Negroes living in tent villages in Tennessee.

A Classified Ad Success Story

A FEW YEARS AGO a man who owned an old truck decided to go into business hauling away odds and ends people wanted to get rid of. He began by running a 3-line classified ad in the local newspaper. In a short time he accumulated enough to open a used furniture store with stock gleaned from attics and cellars. Today he owns a very profitable store with one of the largest trade-in departments in town. Where does he still advertise? That's right—in the classified section of the daily newspaper! (Location on request.)

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Sabella's Project Makes Biggest News On Marin Restaurant Scene

Biggest dinery news this week was Angelo Sabella's announcement that work is being started on the Sabella's harbor project a few hundred yards south of the present restaurant—a joint venture with Harry H. Johnson of Mill Valley, who will build it.

While the entire scheme of Sabella's harbor is long-range in its planning, the new restaurant around which everything else in the center will congregate is a MUST for completion by May 1. Lease on the present structure terminates only 10 days later, marking a decade of restaurant operation in Marin County for the family whose name is synonymous with seafoods.

The new eating establishment will include a circular dining room seating 250, a banquet room almost as capacious and usable for dancing, meetings and exhibitions, two cocktail lounges, a huge kitchen, a retail and catering department—everything completely air conditioned and acoustically balanced.

The kitchen is likely to be a marvel of cookeries in Marin, for it will be as large as the dining room and occupy one-third of the area of the entire building. It is here particularly that many of Angelo's pet ideas accumulated over 30 years of experience will be incorporated. With one eye directed toward later expansion it is being designed to handle the food requirements of more than 1,000 persons.

The most modern equipment will be installed and it will be so located as to service dining, banquet and catering requirements with equal efficiency.

The circular dining room will have an intricate tracking arrangement for partitioning areas of almost any size or shape and will be windowed with non-glare Belgian glass. Space permitting, a children's lounge will be installed.

Later area development includes nine related stores and shops, and small boat facilities and a boat when the channel is dredged. Until such time as the latter takes place the mud flats will be covered with colored rocks to reduce any un-sightliness at low tide. Parking facilities will far exceed county requirements.

The entire development encompasses nearly five acres, of which about half is immediately available for use.

Sabella's prices and menus will remain unchanged when the new restaurant opens.

IF THE FOREGOING is an ambitious project, one not quite so extensive but still beneficial to Marin diners is that of Roy Franchini for West End Villa, San Rafael, which will see earlier completion.

This modest-sized eating establishment which has been operating at full or near capacity is soon to be remodeled to provide a larger cocktail lounge, larger kitchen and more dining space. New equipment will also go in the kitchen.

If it seems to be a mystery where the additional space is coming from, the trick is in removing and relocating certain walls now restricting the most efficient use of the premises.

The Franchinis, father and son, say it can be done and they have the plans all drawn up to prove it. Remodeling will start soon and it may take place without any closedown.

JOHN RICKEY has gone on another European trip.

This in itself is not especially noteworthy. Rickey makes one every year as regularly as winter rains or the falling of autumn leaves.

But his return home is another matter. You can be sure, says Andy Yonan, manager of the Rancho Rafael, that when he comes back there'll be more decorations at the Rancho to show for it—paintings, sculpturing, ceramics or maybe a new "wein haber." Rickey is a persistent collector.

But by then, Andy may have taken the play away from his boss, for Andy is a promoter. Come spring and you're likely to see all kinds of new events taking place at Rancho Rafael.

Meanwhile we'd like to point out that if you want something special here, you simply sit down at the table and order it. Chef Bart Bartolo, we are told, can meet most any type of test you care to submit, whether it's on the menu or not. He's well trained in both American and European dishes and spent years in New Orleans.

SHOW STEALER with Dick Saltzman's orchestra now playing at Pinky's Pizza on Friday nights is drummer Russell Lee. Dick, an ex-drummer himself, was louder in his applause than anyone else after Russ put over a bit of tricky solo work last week.

The group plays at Pinky's in Larkspur tonight.

AND SPEAKING of stealing the show, chef Bob Kramer of Cloud 5, Novato, is not so bad himself.

The only thing is, he does it beating up a fancy apple strudel.

Make it a point to try it next time you're there.

LA PETITE AUBERGE isn't likely to be over its remodeling and open again until the first part of February.

Paul De Vaux says he has received his cocktail license, but there's still too much work ahead for him to do anything about it. With the roof off, this kind of weather would dilute anyone's martini.

Boy, 6, Will Help In Giving Play Exerpts

Ricky Robinson, 6-year-old Mill Valley boy who has been playing the elf Cobweb in "Midsummer Night's Dream" at the Curran Theater in San Francisco, will appear with Will Geer tomorrow at Brown's Hall, Mill Valley.

Ricky is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Robinson of Mill Valley.

Geer is an actor and director of the workshop of the Shakespearean Festival Theater of Stratford, Conn., which presented a pre-Elizabethan program before a sellout house at Brown's Hall Sunday.

Also appearing with Geer and Ricky will be 4-year-old Billy Partello, who plays Peasblossom in "Midsummer Night's Dream."

With children and "The Young In Heart In Mind," Geer says they will do excerpts from Shakespeare with audience participation. A 15-minute show by "The Great Alberti," a professional magician, will precede the Shakespeare program.

Tickets for the 10:30 a.m. show will be sold at the box office starting at 9:30 a.m.

Democratic Club Meeting Slated

A dual-purpose public meeting to organize a Belvedere-Tiburon Democratic Club and celebrate the inauguration of President Kennedy will be held at Tiburon Tommie's restaurant in Tiburon on Jan. 20 at 8:30 p.m.

The proposed club would represent Strawberry, Bel Aire, and Paradise Cove as well as Belvedere and Tiburon.

A social hour during the telecast of the inaugural ball will follow the business meeting.

Review Due Death Row Felon Appeals

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The State Supreme Court has taken under submission appeals of two convicted murderers sentenced to die in the San Quentin Prison gas chamber.

The court, which completed its sessions yesterday a day ahead of schedule, will rule on appeals by Darrell Thomas Kemp, 24, and James Kendrick, 29.

Kemp, a Canoga Park carpenter, was convicted of the slaying of Los Angeles nurse Marjorie Hipperson, June 10, 1957.

Kendrick was sentenced to die for killing California highway patrolman Richard Duvall, 26, near Victorville last Feb. 23 after escaping from San Quentin.

Attorney Russell Parsons told the court there was "serious doubt" as to Kemp's sanity.

Public Defender Edward P. Foley, representing Kendrick, said the defendant's rights were violated because more than 48 hours elapsed between apprehension and arraignment.

MARIN FILM FARE

Story Of FDR Fight Against Polio Due

By LES DARD

Here's what you can see at the movies this weekend:

RAFAEL THEATER

When he was only 39, Franklin Delano Roosevelt was stricken with polio. He had, until that moment at Campobello Island off the Canadian coast, been a vigorous man, brilliant, devoted to his family.

Three years later, he was a middle-aged man, hobbling on crutches oh so slowly down the aisle at the 1924 Democratic convention to place in nomination the name of Al Smith.

It is the story of that triumph over his illness that is told in "Sunrise at Campobello" (color), based on the prize-winning Broadway play by Dore Schary. It opens Sunday on the San Rafael screen.

Ralph Bellamy plays FDR in a vivid, perfect performance. Greer Garson is cast as Eleanor Roosevelt and Hume Cronyn is the gnomish Louis Howe, the henchman who kept alive the future President's political hopes. Ann Shoemaker portrays FDR's mother, a dominating woman whose possessive characteristics he had to contain and destroy to win back his place in society.

"Sunrise" is technically a superior product, an almost certain nominee for a score of Oscars, including best film and best performances. I think even Republicans will be entranced by this story.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

"The Ladykillers" (color) brings back Alec Guinness in one of his most successful roles

—the criminal mastermind who is undone by the goodness of his aged landlady (Katie Johnson).

The basic idea of this farce—co-featured with "To Paris With Love" (also starring Guinness) involves using the frail Miss Johnson as an unwitting accomplice in a mammoth London robbery engineered by Mr. G. and his pals. The scheme is carried out in a series of tense and ludicrous situations, all of them laugh getters.

FAIRFAX THEATER

"Please Don't Eat the Daisies" (CinemaScope and color) is a domestic comedy based rather loosely on Jean Kerr's best-seller.

It's about a Broadway critic (David Niven), his wife (Doris Day), their four children, a nitwit mother-in-law (Spring Byington), their domestic (Patsy Kelly) and a neurotic dog who needs a tranquilizer every time he sees a cat.

The frothy plot details their trials when they move from the city, rather suddenly, to a dilapidated old house in the suburbs.

SEQUOIA THEATER

"Midnight Lace" (color), a mystery melodrama (Eastman Color) starring Doris Day and Rex Harrison, opens Sunday in Mill Valley.

Miss Day portrays an heiress happily wed to Harrison. Then one day she hears a queer, high voice calling her name in a thick London fog—and a threat to kill. At home, the phone rings—the same voice, further threats to kill.

Enter Scotland Yard as the script begins to offer up suspects.

Is it Roddy McDowell, the sneaky son of the charwoman? Or John Gavin, who reminds the Yard of a "telephone crank"? Or shiftily-eyed Herbert Marshall? Could it possibly be flighty Myrna Loy, whose behavior seems to belie a native shrewdness?

The ending is a surprise.

MOTOR MOVIES

Darryl F. Zanuck's "David and Bathsheba," starring Gregory Peck and Susan Hayward, is now showing.

In color, this Biblical tale was one of the top hits of 1951. It is a combination of love, drama and religion put together by one of the better practitioners of showmanship.

The spectacle has been especially well handled and include, if your memory needs refreshing, the bringing of the Ark of the Covenant to Jerusalem, the fight between David and Goliath, mob scenes, fights, drought, etc.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Ocean's 11 (Panavision, color) is the intriguing title of a film about a monumental Las Vegas caper. It comes to the Hub screen Sunday.

Frank Sinatra stars as Danny Ocean, a war veteran. And what do war vets and their pals do when they get together? Well in this comedy-melodrama, they plot the holdup of five casinos—all at once.

The 11 pals include Dean Martin, Sammy Davis Jr., Peter Lawford and Richard Conte, among others.

NOVATO THEATER

"Esther and the King" (color, CinemaScope) stars Richard Egan and Joan Collins in a retelling of the biblical story. (It opens Sunday.)

Miss Collins portrays Esther, the woman who wed the Persian King Ahasuerus to save her Jewish kinsmen. Egan plays the monarch who rescues Esther's Uncle Mordecai (Dennis O'Dea) while his own evil henchman Haman (Sergio Fantoni) is properly dispatched.

This Old Testament story was filmed in Italy by Hollywood veteran Raoul Walsh, who also had a hand in the sex-and-sand script.

Estimate: Plenty of spectacle.

LARK THEATER

By way of closing the dollar gap, Britain has been sending us a series of crowd-pleasing comedies in which the characters "carry on."

The latest of these is "Carry On Sergeant," held over on the Larkspur screen, and it is based on the premise that turning British army recruits into soldiers is sure-fire humor.

All the ingredients are in this one: the tough drill sergeant, recruits rolling around in the mud, girls in camp, the captain vs. a fire extinguisher, the awkward marcher.

THREE CRADLES FOR CIVILIZATION

Three chimpanzees, currently being trained for space flight at the Air Research and Development Command's Aeromedical Field Laboratory at Holloman Air Force Base, N. M., are strapped in cradles similar to those they might ride aboard a space vehicle. The chimps are named Duane, Jim and Chu. They are taught to perform tasks designed to measure psychological and neurological functionings which will enable scientists to predict whether man can perform useful functions in a space environment. ## School Tests Will Be Urged SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The state superintendent of public instruction will urge the Board of Education tonight to adopt a mandatory statewide testing program for elementary and secondary school children.

The proposal by Roy E. Simpson is similar to a recommendation by the Citizens Advisory Commission on Education to help each student and each school to determine how it matches up with the rest of the state.

Simpson would allow local school districts to choose from several groups of tests. The commission asked uniform statewide tests.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

THE SENATE

Bills introduced:
Apportionment—Creates commission to study reapportionment of Senate; SB 146, Burns (D-Fresno).

Vote—Restores cross-filing in primary elections; SB 143, McCarthy (R-San Rafael).

THE ASSEMBLY

Bills introduced:
Liquor—Repeals state fair trade law on liquor; AB 315, Rumford (D-Berkeley).

Reapportionment—Eliminates present Assembly district boundaries; AB 280, Crown. Eliminates present congressional district boundaries; AB 281, Crown.

Constitutional amendment introduced:
Schools—Eliminates minimum of $120 per student for state aid to elementary and secondary schools; ACA 10, Flournoy.

Legislature Recesses Till Monday

By MORRIE LANDSBERG

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—It hasn't taken long for the big differences of the 1961 legislative session to emerge.

Both houses are in recess today until Monday. But the bills introduced and proposed in the first two weeks form a clear pattern of impending clash.

Take taxes: Everybody's talking about tax cuts but chances of doing something about them are fairly slim.

MORE BILLS

Gov. Edmund G. Brown says state finances just won't permit a major reduction.

Even so, the bills keep coming in to slice away at the sales and personal income taxes, always popular targets in pre-election years.

Brown himself got into the act, urging the legislature to knock off the sales tax on prescription drugs. The Republican minority promptly made taxes the No. 1 issue against the Democratic administration.

The Republicans accused Brown of political opportunism in advocating the drug exemption—a GOP-sponsored measure he threatened to veto last year. They want more and bigger tax cuts.

CROWDED FIELD

Or take welfare: Less partisan, this is still another crowded field. Bills are in to raise payments to needy aged, blind and disabled. More are coming to tightly regulate aid to needy children.

In addition, Brown wants to modify the relatives responsibility law. He'd like to relieve all but the well-to-do from having to help support old age pensioners.

Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles) came out yesterday with a bill to repeal the law outright and eliminate the costs of administration.

The lawmakers have hardly begun to fight over water, but already some influential Senate Democrats have openly criticized the governor's plan for building a statewide water system.

RASH OF BILLS

The past week brought a rash of bills aimed at the narcotics traffic.

There were measures to permit wiretap evidence in court, prescribe tougher penalties against narcotics peddlers and hit especially hard at those who cater to minors.

The "search and seizure" amendments, in particular, are certain to create a ruckus. One of the proposals seeks to overturn the present requirement that narcotics informers be identified in court cases.

UNDER NEW LAW

Brown Says Teachers Won't Lose Positions

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—No California teacher would lose his job under pending legislation to bolster training requirements and trim the types of credentials from 40 to 5.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown, who backed the measure in his message to the legislature, said yesterday.

"This bill, of course, looks to the future and will not apply to the thousands of conscientious teachers who have obtained their credentials under the present law."

Many teachers have expressed fear for their jobs if the bill by Sen. Hugo Fisher (D-San Diego) should become law.

GOP Group Endorses Drugs Tax Repeal

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly's Republican minority has endorsed repeal of the prescription drug sales tax as part of a broad tax reduction program.

GOP caucus chairman John A. Buserud (R-San Francisco) accused the Democratic administration of "buying a Republican program under heavy pressure."

Gov. Edmund G. Brown, who threatened to veto the same proposal last year, has urged the current legislature to lift the sales tax from prescription drugs and medicines.

Buserud and Assemblyman Joseph C. Shell (R-Los Angeles) house minority leader, said the administration bill doesn't go far enough. They said the Republicans will seek to broaden the exemptions to include eyeglasses, crutches and various orthopedic devices.

Buserud said the GOP caucus was considering other tax cutting measures affecting the personal income tax and taxes on small business, among others. Republicans are now down to 33 of the 80 Assembly seats.

License Due

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The Contractors' State License Board announced it plans to issue a general building contractor's license to Edward W. Kerbs, 120 Baltimore Avenue, Larkspur, if no protest is received by January 30.

Six Vie For Mill Valley Postmaster

The Democratic County Central Committee will be asked Monday night to make a recommendation to Rep. Clement W. Miller on appointment of a new postmaster for Mill Valley.

The committee will meet at 8 p.m. in the county courthouse.

A six-member Democratic committee from the Third Supervisorial District has interviewed six aspirants for the job being vacated by John E. McSweeney, who has applied for retirement Feb. 18.

Gerald N. Hill, committee chairman, said the central committee will be asked to either recommend one of the six or propose an examination. (An examination is a prerequisite for postmaster appointment.)

The six aspirants, all Mill Valley residents, are:

George Parker, assistant postmaster, of 124 Lovell Avenue; Edward G. Baraty, San Francisco post office clerk, 112 West Blithedale Avenue; Frank E. Bennett, a long-time carrier in Mill Valley and secretary of the local carriers' union, 242 Flamingo Road; Edward D. Clark, senior clerk in the Mill Valley post office and former regional vice president of the clerks' union, 82 Del Casa Drive; John T. Little, Mill Valley post office clerk, 23 Locke Lane, and Martha J. Rising, a longtime civil service employee now on leave from the Marine Corps, 32 El Paseo.

miles between lubrications

30,000 is the most famous number of the year. It's every '61 Ford owner's license to save. How can Ford do it? Conventional chassis lubrication fittings have been replaced with metal plugs that help protect each lubrication point against abrasive mud, dirt and dust. And then, for only about $4 and about 20 minutes your Ford is ready for another 30,000! This is just one of the many ways the '61 Ford is built to take care of itself. Your Ford Dealer can show you more.

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF

Lubricates itself—You'll normally go 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications (which cost only about $4.00 and take about 20 minutes) because Ford has replaced conventional grease fittings with a sealed-in lubrication system.

Cleans its own oil—You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes because Ford's Full-Flow oil filter gives you filtration through fibers... trapping more dirt than any other type of filter made.

Adjusts its own brakes—New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves—automatically.

Guards its own muffler—Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and aluminized to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.

Protects its own body—All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing the body panels beneath the doors.

Takes care of its own finish—Just wash and clean Ford's new Diamond Lustre Finish and it continues to glisten like new. It never needs waxing.

Only FORD is beautifully built to take care of itself

Banker Deserves Long, Happy, Eventful, Retirement

In the rush and bustle of the holiday season, we have neglected a task which we certainly would enjoy doing.

The task (this is a task?) is to wish John V. Bacigalupi a long, happy, eventful and healthy retirement.

John, as most everyone in Marin knows, has been Mr. Bank of America in the county for many years. He retired at year's end as vice president of the bank and manager of the San Rafael branch, after nearly 42 years of continuous service, and another four years before that that don't count.

The last quarter century of that time he has been in Marin County. As a Marinite, he's been more than just a bank manager. He's taken an active part in the activities of the community and has had a hand in shaping many of its destinies.

He's been leader in the Marin United Fund and the Marin Industrial Development Foundation. He's been a long-time member of the Marin County Employees Retirement Board, the Redwood Empire Association, the Lions Club, Club Italia of Marin, and the American Institute of Banking.

He's taken an active part in the Boy

Scout movement here. As chairman of the Golden Anniversary year celebration of the Scouts, he headed a year-long program which didn't end until Dec. 31. That day, in a heavy fog, he was out on the hillside of the new Civic Center at Santa Venetia helping the Scouts plant trees for a grove which will be a living memorial to the Scouting movement and, incidentally, to John Bacigalupi's leadership.

All this has been accomplished in John's mild, quite, friendly manner. If he's ever raised his voice in anger to anyone, we've never heard of it. But he gets things done.

That's why we hope he has a wonderful retirement. But we hope too, that he doesn't stay away from Marin too long at a time. We'd like to have him on tap. There's a lot of jobs we can think up for him to fill in that "retired" time.

And, incidentally, we wish success to his successor as bank manager, Leroy Rudolph. We're used to having an effective, available man at the helm across the street from us. It looks as if the bank has the man who can keep the course steady.

Birds On The Ground

During the winter season, more than any other, we are likely to find groups of sparrows and other birds diligently inspecting the ground and low-hanging bushes for seeds and berries.

Carnivorous birds that thrive upon insects have slim pickings and many have departed to the buggier climates to the south. But the hustling, little seed eaters remain.

Marin has its winter insects too.

Enough worms to keep the robins here. And there are enough bugs to feed the little frogs which make a good meal for the blue-jays.

It's a pleasant sight to see a bunch of sparrows scratching, picking and choosing on the ground on a winter's day. Things may not be perfect, but they continue on their merry, tail-switching, seed-hunting way.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

HEROISM IN MID-AIR

Dangling helplessly from a plane at the end of a line 3,200 feet in the air over Ontario, a student parachutist came within a few seconds of plummeting to death.

He was saved by the quick-thinking heroism of an instructor who slid down the line and opened the trapped man's parachute. His right arm had gotten tangled in the line and was tightly fastened against his body.

As the instructor reached the helpless victim and pulled the rip-cord, the overstrained line snapped. Both landed safely.

One shudders to think, "What would I do?" in such a terrifying moment. Without more than seconds for reflection and the danger so great, only a man with the highest respect for the value of a human life would attempt such a feat.

In many lesser ways you can show an effective regard for the God-given dignity of others. You can take a stand for man's dignity.

"And God created man to His own image: to the image of God He created him." (Genesis 1:27)

Enable me in all I say and do, O Lord, to build up respect for my fellow man, not tear it down.

Is Your Past Showing? It Is If You Can Remember These Things

NEW YORK (AP)—Your past is showing if you like to remember about when—

A father welcomed his son to manhood by giving him a gold pocket watch on his 21st birthday.

Mother could still bake bread like her own mother used to make.

People waited hopefully for Houdini, the great magician, to send a message from beyond the grave.

Nobody feared the atom.

How could you be afraid of something so small you can't even see it?

Naturalists sternly warned raccoon might become extinct if college boys didn't stop turning them into coats.

A woman felt half-dressed unless she had a couple of silver fox furs swinging from her neck.

The Woolworth Tower was the world's tallest office building, and it was seriously debated whether, if they built many more skyscrapers, their weight might cause Manhattan Island to sink into the ocean.

The red caps at a railroad terminal were glad to handle your luggage at a dime a bag.

The local barbershop served as the poor man's club—and the town's main forum of political discussion.

Mothers took for granted their children would get chicken pox, measles and mumps, but prayed they would be spared scarlet fever and diphtheria.

Businessmen worried more about getting appendicitis than heart attacks.

A WOMAN WHO smoked a cigarette in a restaurant was regarded as a shady lady. Fathers gravely assured their sons they certainly would die young of tuberculosis.

A young man could go to a pool hall and keep his social standing, but if he were seen hanging around a bowling alley—well, it started talk.

WITH ONLY A dollar bill in your wallet, you could impress your best girl by taking her to a movie, stop off later at the ice cream parlor for a couple of big double-dip sodas, spend an hour sparking on her front porch swing—and still get home before midnight with a dime left in your pocket.

Those were the days!

We Need County Hospital Less

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

I am enclosing a copy of a letter which I am addressing to the Board of Supervisors expressing my personal views on the need for a county hospital:

Board of Supervisors, Court House, San Rafael:

Marin needs a county hospital less as new factors reduce the number of our citizens who are unable to pay their own way. Expanding assistance to the senior citizens will soon give this large group medical solvency with free choice of hospital or physician.

The concept of custodial care has so greatly changed in the past few years that it should include the facilities of a general hospital and rehabilitation organization. The number requiring long term hospital care is being steadily reduced as geriatric concepts become more efficient and effective.

The Babcock Foundation safeguards an increasing segment of our citizens from catastrophic medical and hospital expense, and undoubtedly this will be expanded as the excellent results of its initial years become more widely understood and utilized by the people of Marin.

Before we invest in a structure planned to last a hundred years, which must be maintained by taxes, we should take a long and intelligent look at where we are headed. We should continuously strive to wipe out indigency and providing a home for it is to encourage it.

These are my personal views—not those of the medical society or the hospital.

W. P. GODDARD, M.D.
Mill Valley

Bouquets To Gness, Castro

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Please send a written bouquet for me to Supervisors Walter Castro and William Gness for not following the subversive action of the other three that resulted in the stop-work of a great Civic Center Plan.

DOUGLAS HEEN
Mill Valley

Who Will Pay The Contractor?

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Who does Mr. Fusselman think will be paying the contractor on the Civic Center for the materials, equipment and labor tied up by the stop work order? Most probably the taxpayer.

The board was warned once before by counsel that halting the work left the county open to damage suits in substantial amounts. The time required to study converting the building into an entirely different occupancy category with different exiting and corridor requirements and with vastly different mechanical services will be in the order of months. For this study the taxpayer will be paying architectural fees again for the hospital already designed.

What damages might the courts allow the Civic Center contractor for a delay of several months—$500 a day, $1,000, $2,000? Has anyone stopped to consider the amounts?

If a conversion study had to be made, why stop the work and incur extra costs? And how many county construction workers will be unemployed?

It appears obvious that Mr. Fusselman, under the magic call of "economy," is simply trying to stop a project he has always opposed.

What economy will there be after the delays, the extra costs, the possible damages when the board finds out that such a conversion is not economically sound? I have very little doubt that this will be the result of such a study.

It is time to sound the recall bell on this kind of performance.

M. N. FINISY

Fairfax

Shows Vehement Disapproval

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

This is to register my vehement disapproval of Supervisor Fusselman's recent action in halting the Frank Lloyd Wright Civic Center project in Northern Marin County. I think he shows extremely poor judgment and reflects no foresight.

If there is anything further that I may do to register my disapproval or to further continuance of this very worthwhile project, please do not hesitate to let me know.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A Hollywood bit player who fancied himself as a Lothario was boasting about his conquest on location in the San Joaquin Valley. "My first night there," he announced,

I SUPPOSE, however, that Erma is just one of the complications we must face in the age of automation. If the bankers are happy with her, I will be the last to object to her addition to the staff.

That is, so long as she does not replace my very favorite teller, Gean Bess, with whom, on paydays, when I hand my paycheck over to her tender care, I whisper sweet nothings about such matters as interest rates, business trends and the gross national product.

"I had dates with Sally, Irene and Fido," "Fido!" echoed a friend. "That sounds like a dog to me." The bit player was overcome with a rare burst of honesty. "If you think Fido was a dog," he confessed, "you should have seen Sally and Irene!"

Sign spotted at a drive-in movie in Texas (where else?): "Please answer your car phone promptly to avoid disturbing other patrons."

George Gobel offers this advice absolutely free to the gardeners of America:

"Don't look down on the lily, for, gardeners, if you do, Some day that selfsame lily may be looking down on you."

Decides To Stay And Fight

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Headlines today (Jan. 10) in your paper disturb the peace. It was beautiful here all day at Muir Beach, bright, warm, clean.

"County Board Votes To Halt Work On Civic Center Site." Fog rolls in, cold winds blow, the air has a peculiar unpleasant smell. The pessimist can again make his famous statement, "It was a beautiful day, but thank God it's over with."

The enormous provincialism of Marin County, holding hands with selfishness, forms a phalanx of saboteurs with strength to push creativity over the cliffs and into the sea.

The first impulse might be "give the county back to the Indians," sell out and go to Mexico, New York, Cleveland or Taos. But names loom up to haunt you, Frank Lloyd Wright, Mrs. Norman Livermore, Vera Schultz and many other friends of man and nature.

So we decided to put on a gas mask and stay and fight. We can't let them down. After all if we leave this little backwards area and move to a more enlightened community, we will be shirking a duty, for when we learn the history there, we will find that they had struggles too.

WARD MONTAGUE
Muir Beach

Setting Record—Backwards

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

If the present trend continues, our new board of supervisors may set a world record—for moving backwards faster than any other governmental unit in history.

LOUISE PRANGE
Tiburon

Hospital Design Complicated

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

The recent vote by our Board of Supervisors to halt the work on the Civic Center building and see whether it can be converted into a hospital is the height of stupidity!

We were warned by the Independent-Journal to watch out for the actions of this new board, but I didn't expect to see such short-sighted thinking so soon.

What else will Mr. Fusselman think of to stop this one far-sighted and necessary project?

To take a half-finished, special purpose building and try to convert it into a hospital, one of the most complicated and technical building forms known, is unthinkable. I have worked as an architectural designer for the past 15 years and, having designed several hospitals, I know some of the problems.

Marin County is on the threshold of an expansion that will be tremendous in the near future. We cannot afford to make little plans. We need the Civic Center plus a new county hospital and many other facilities. We need proper master planning in all fields to take care of future needs.

We need leaders with vision to put these plans into effect. If we fail to do these things now, the county we love may become one vast slum with chaos prevailing.

Erma Goes To Work At The Bank With Cold, Unfeeling Efficiency

A new employee named Erma joined the staff of the San Rafael branch of the Bank of America this week.

Not a girl, as the name would lead one to believe, Erma is a gleaming series of electronic machines, housed in San Francisco, which will henceforth process all checks written on the Bank of America.

Her name is derived from the initials of the imposing title: Electronic Recording Method of Accounting.

ERMA HAS TAKEN over the duties of unteem bookkeepers who, up to now, have performed such tasks as keeping records of accounts, sorting and posting deposits and withdrawals, keeping track of "stop payment" and "refer to maker" orders, calculating service charges and compiling monthly statements, from which one determines how much one is overdrawn.

Erma operates, I am told, on a principle of electronic eyes, which react to magnetic ink on Bank of America checks (free, personalized), although I personally suspect that inside of her also are little folk with mirrors.

She is most efficient, according to bank officials who have a morbid interest in such things as how many accounts a bookkeeper can process in a given time.

A SPEEDY GAL, they tell me, can go through 245 accounts an hour. Erma handily tops this by breezing through 550 accounts a minute without an error, a talent which would naturally make her very near and dear to any banker's heart.

I am assured by these same officials that Erma will not replace any of the hired help, a promise which makes me very happy indeed, as the San

REMEMBER WHEN

10 YEARS AGO

Marin City's Tenants Council asked better police protection, saying that when a local resident recently announced he was about to kill his wife the deputies replied they couldn't do a thing about it.

In chastened mood because of criticisms that Golden Gate Bridge funds were spent at Christmas time last year to give a $965 party "for a bunch of politicians with the taxpayers' money," the directors decided that this year's fund would be for bridge employees only at a frugal $300 cost.

20 YEARS AGO

Employing butchers affiliated with the Marin County Meat Dealers Assn. and Employers Council voted in favor of reducing the work day from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. in compliance with a union agreement.

Departure of San Francisco-bound morning commute buses was moved up 20 minutes, with the first leaving San Rafael at 5:50 a.m. Agent Harry Hoffman said this would let commuters reach work on the hour and half-hour.

I SUPPOSE, however, that Erma is just one of the complications we must face in the age of automation. If the bankers are happy with her, I will be the last to object to her addition to the staff.

That is, so long as she does not replace my very favorite teller, Gean Bess, with whom, on paydays, when I hand my paycheck over to her tender care, I whisper sweet nothings about such matters as interest rates, business trends and the gross national product.

"I had dates with Sally, Irene and Fido," "Fido!" echoed a friend. "That sounds like a dog to me." The bit player was overcome with a rare burst of honesty. "If you think Fido was a dog," he confessed, "you should have seen Sally and Irene!"

Faculty, Religious Unit Urge Negroes Return To School

ATHENS, Ga. (UP)—Faculty, civic and religious groups urged today that two Negro students return to class at the University of Georgia until the state and federal governments complete an investigation of racial rioting that resulted in the Negroes' suspension.

Police, state highway patrolmen and university officials strengthened their defenses, however, in expectation of a new surge of rioting should the two Negroes be ordered back by a federal judge in Macon, Ga., this afternoon.

The Negroes, Charlayne Hunter, 18, and Hamilton Holmes, 19, both of Atlanta, were taken out of the university by highway patrolmen early yesterday after a riot that left five policemen hurt and windows smashed in the dormitory where Miss Hunter lived.

Their attorneys were to go before federal district Judge

Sheriffs Renew Plea For Tougher Narcotics Laws

SACRAMENTO (UP)—California's sheriffs have renewed their support of tougher narcotics penalties and called for a vote of the people on any measure to modify the death penalty.

The legislative committee of the California State Sheriffs Assn. met in Sacramento Wednesday.

Members called for terms of 15 years to life for selling narcotics to minors on the first offense. Second offenses would bring a 20-year to life sentence and third offense 30 years to life.

Penalties for other narcotics offenses would be generally increased.

The sheriffs voted in favor of retaining California's gas chamber and urged a vote of the people on any proposal to abolish the death penalty or suspend executions temporarily.

REV. GEORGE LOFTNESS
Announces retirement

Rev. Loftness Announces Retirement

Rev. George O. Loftness, pastor of Marin Lutheran Church which he organized in Corte Madera in 1948, has announced his retirement.

Rev. Loftness, who celebrated his 70th birthday last month, made the announcement at the church's annual meeting Tuesday.

"Having reached retirement age . . . and realizing that the duties of a pastor . . . require energy beyond what I am able to give, I hereby resign," he told his congregation.

His retirement will be effective April 10 unless a successor is called to the church before then, said parish worker Amanda Tufte.

Rev. Loftness organized the church in November, 1948, with 37 members. During the first month of the church's operation a total of only 102 persons attended worship and the total offering for the month was $80.05.

Today the church's membership is 547 and the operational budget in 1960 was $41,580, with $8,000 going to missions and charity.

Before coming to Marin, Rev. Loftness served as director of an Armed Services Christian center in Tacoma, Wash. Previously he pastored parishes in Anacortes, Wash., an in Devil's Lake, North Dakota. He is a graduate of Luther Seminary, St. Paul, Minn., and of Luther College, Decorah, Iowa.

Plastics Firm In Sausalito Bought Out

Purchase of Aeromarine Plastics Corp. in Sausalito by Pearson Corp. of Bristol, R.I., was announced today by Clinton J. Pearson, president of the latter firm.

Aeromarine will be operated as a wholly owned subsidiary of the east coast firm, Pearson said. T. L. Schoonmaker will remain as president of the subsidiary firm, to be known as Pearson Corp. of California.

Aeromarine is successor to Coleman Boat and Plastics Co., first builder of large fiberglass pleasure boats. It introduced the 41-foot Bounty II, of which 73 are now sailing on waters of both coasts and in the Great Lakes.

Since 1959, Aeromarine has been building and marketing the Pearson Triton under a licensing arrangement with Pearson Corp.

The purchase by Pearson includes the Sausalito plant, which has 30,000 square feet of production space, plus other assets, manufacturing rights and good will, said Pearson. The price was not disclosed.

Robert C. Potter will remain as vice president in charge of production, and William V. Bentinck in charge of engineering and design.

Pearson Corp. was incorporated in 1956 and has gained national recognition for its design and construction of fiberglass boats. Stock of the company is now held 62 per cent by Grumman Aircraft Engine Corp. as result of the recently completed merger of Grumman Boats of Marathon, N.Y., with the Rhode Island firm.

Gate Span Board Chief Scores McCarthy Moves

Dan E. London, president of the Golden Gate Bridge District, yesterday accused State Sen. John F. McCarthy of inconsistency in the senator's bill, introduced Monday, to take away payment to bridge board members for attending meetings.

"Bridge directors, who come from San Francisco and the counties of Marin, Napa, Sonoma, Mendocino and Del Norte, are paid $25 for each board of committee meeting with a limit of $100 per month, plus traveling expenses incurred in the performance of their duties," said London.

"On the other hand, Senator McCarthy was the author in 1957 of the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit Act under which the transit district directors received $50 a meeting, with a maximum of $250 per month while the president of the rapid transit district receives $5,000 a year additionally, the vice president receives $3,000 a year, in addition to the $50 a meeting fee. The senator endorsed this fee schedule in his bill."

London said "Senator McCarthy has been venting his spleen against the Golden Gate Bridge for a period of years. For entirely personal and political reasons, he has made many irresponsible and malicious attacks on the district, its board of directors and its management."

Bank Executive Named To Humane Society Board

Byron W. Leydecker, vice president - manager of the Crocker-Anglo Bank in San Rafael, has been elected to the board of directors of the Marin County Humane Society.

Possible acquisition of land for a new animal shelter was discussed at the board meeting at which Leydecker was named. President Frederic D. Kerr said the society wants to acquire property both for expansion of facilities and for an enlarged educational program.

Besides operation of the Humane Society Animal Shelter the society acts as poundkeeper for Marin County and its 10 incorporated cities. The present shelter was built by donated funds and Kerr said real property can be accepted as a gift to the non-profit organization.

Redwood Empire Meeting Slated

Paul Leahy, Marin County vice president of the Redwood Empire Assn., today announced plans for a meeting Jan. 18 of Marin REA members.

Leahy said the session will be held at Bob's of Marin, Corte Madera, with an 8 p.m. dinner preceded by no-host cocktail hour.

Among those scheduled to participate are Don Emerson, Lake County resort owner who heads the association; Carney Campion, REA executive manager, and Robert Trombetta, Santa Rosa businessman who is REA membership chairman.

It will be the first REA meeting in Marin County since the "New Era in REA" program was launched two years ago.

Land-Cruising through the Rockies and the Sierra

Two full days of enchanting scenery — and only the Vista-Dome California Zephyr lets you see it all! . . .

By LUCIA LEWIS

Well-known Travel Editor

You can travel between Chicago and the West Coast in three ways (or make it six, if you toss in horseback, bicycle, and hiking). But I am happy with my rediscovery of the rail-way. I rediscovered this travel pleasure when I traveled from Chicago to San Francisco on the California Zephyr—a true luxury train (both first class and coach) which operates via Denver and Salt Lake City, over the Burlington, Rio Grande, and Western Pacific railroads. Both westbound and eastbound, its schedule gives you daytime travel through the prize scenic areas. This is a true on-land-travel that helps me make the wisest use of time for work, pleasure, or both.

Writing is my job. But it doesn't feel like work aboard the California Zephyr, because every time I glance out the window I am stimulated by the longest parade of beauty along any railroad, here or abroad. And on a five-foot-top Vista-Domes give every passenger a front-row view! Even today, no highways penetrate to much of the most sensational scenery in Colorado and California. Only the rail-builders have blazed their trails here.

Busy cameras must make the Zephyr seem like a year-round Santa Claus to film manufacturers, for both eastbound and westbound this train displays scenery which keeps still cameras clicking and movie cameras whirring.

Westbound, you start along the Burlington; through serene Illinois farms and villages that seem a world away from Chicago's turmoil. As night falls, you cross the Mississippi—and, when dawn comes, the Rockies rise along the western horizon. Breakfast time finds you in Denver, about to begin the Rio Grande Railroad's spectacular climb up the Rockies. Suddenly you're in a mountain wonderland.

All day long, the train winds through Byers, Gore, Glenwood and other Colorado canyons. Only when you gaze up at the peaks from way down here can you truly grasp their grandeur.

A blaze of glory winds up your day, on the Colorado-Utah border, in Ruby Canyon . . . aptly named for its crimson cliffs and pinnacles. The whole canyon is bathed in a rosy light; even the gray-green sagebrush turns pink in the afterglow as the sun sets behind the red rocks.

Next morning the Western Pacific Railroad shows you the pinnacled beauties of California's Feather River Canyon for hour after hour. Through this 118-mile canyon, the river tumbles fiercely around rocky islands and over many-colored boulders and foam flies in white plumes, reminiscent of the wild pigeon feathers that gave the river its name.

Finally you roll out on California's Central Valley. Here fruit trees blossom while there's still snow back home. You gaze out at rice fields and vegetable farms from Marysville to Sacramento to Stockton, and roll into Oakland by mid-afternoon. The white towers of San Francisco, shining on their hills, welcome you across the great Bay Bridge.

This is the way to use time—on a land-cruise for rest or for undisturbed work—and always for joy in communion with 2,500 miles of your country at its splendid best.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, Jan. 13, the 13th day of the year with 352 more in 1961.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The morning star is Mars.

The evening stars are Venus and Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1733, some 150 English colonists arrived at Charleston, S. C. with a charter to establish a settlement in what is now Georgia.

In 1834, Horatio Alger, author of "rags-to-riches" stories, was born.

In 1864, American composer Stephen Foster died in New York's Bellevue Hospital, with 35 cents in his pocket—all the money he had.

In 1868, the Senate refused to accept President Johnson's ouster of Secretary of War Edwin Stanton.

In 1906, a scientific magazine (Scientific American) carried an ad for a radio set for the first time.

A thought for today: Harvard President Charles Eliot said: "In the modern world the intelligence of public opinion is the one indispensable condition of social progress."

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

By JIM GILMARTIN

N.Y. Readers Awed By Marin Team; Abe Woodson Moves To Terra Linda

A little bit about a lot of things . . . When College of Marin cancelled a few games at the end of last football season the story was twisted many ways.

One paper indicated Coach Harry Pieper and his Tars were just plain scared of tough opposition.

The real story was that injuries and ineligibilities riddled the squad so that there just weren't enough players left to complete the season.

Our favorite story on the matter was published in the New York Tribune, whose readers must regard Marin as an awesome grid power. Its story said Marin's opponents canceled the game because Marin was just too powerful for them.

The Tars, incidentally, didn't win a game.

MR. AND MRS. Abe Woodson and young son are new residents of Terra Linda on Las Gallinas Drive, reports Dick Skuse. Able Abe, the 49er defensive whiz, works in the off season for Trans-Bay Savings and Loan. Welcome to Marin, Abe and Co.

ZENO GELATTI's first day on the job as new manager of San Rafael's Country Club Bowl was memorable indeed for the big kegling champ.

First, he strained his back while moving a desk; then the automatic pinsetters broke down during league play to strain his head as well as his back. Undismayed by it all, Zeno shrugged: "I have big shoulders to handle the troubles."

MARIN FANS who enjoyed the State Semi-Pro Baseball Championships played in San Rafael for the first time last year will be in for a double treat this year.

S. L. "Brick" Swegle, California commissioner for the National Baseball Congress, announces the state finals will be played here again.

The second treat is announcement of transfer of the North Bay NBC playoffs from Yountville to San Rafael, preceding the state finals.

The North Bay is one of four area playoffs which will send teams to the finals. Last year at Yountville the Santa Rosa Elks won the North Bay and Travis Air Force Base was runner-up.

Present plans, according to Swegle, call for eight teams to compete in the North Bay with the four top survivors staying around for the state finals which begin July 21.

WHEN REDWOOD High's Ned Griffith was assigned to guard Drake's Mike Bresnan in their basketball duel last week it was a battle of student body presidents. Ned is Redwood's prexy; Mike ditto at Drake.

ABE SAPERSTEIN, in the area drumming up business for his Harlem Globetrotters, tells about the time his famed court jesters were hissed by a crowd of 14,000 Chinese in Hong Kong.

"It sure was a load off our minds," Abe laughed, "when someone got around to telling us that hissing indicated the Chinese liked us."

The Trotters appear in Richmond Auditorium next Tuesday night.

STATE BASEBALL FINALS

Winner Of San Rafael Tourney Gets $1,000

Winner of the 26th annual affiliated California state championship baseball tournament at San Rafael in 1961 will be awarded a guaranteed first prize purse of $1,000, the National Baseball Congress announced today. This arrangement was confirmed by S. L. (Brick) Swegle of Walnut Creek, N.B.C. California commissioner.

Furthermore, the California winner will be one of eight state champions which automatically qualify into the 27th annual national tournament in Wichita in late August. Forty-two state winners are required to compete in bi-state playoffs for a berth in the national competition. First game for the California titlists in U.S. playoffs, has been set for the night of Aug. 23, Congress President Ray Dumont said.

The state event is scheduled to start at San Rafael, July 21 with a minimum 16-team bracket with champions from qualifying tournaments over the state assured certification. Hatzell Radio of El Cerrito is the defending California champion.

Marin-Tam Game Rated Tossup Tonight

BASKETBALL??? Perhaps the appearance of College of Marin's football coach Harry Pieper influenced the Tar basketballers to strike this gridiron lineup for photographer Jim Kean at practice yesterday afternoon. The football-minded Pieper was called to direct the practice session when regular coach

Mariners Play Sierra At Redwood Gym

Sierra College basketball squad of Auburn motors into Marin County tonight to provide College of Marin Tars with their third contest in the young Golden Valley Conference season.

The game, originally scheduled for Kentfield, has been transferred to Redwood High School because Marin's gym has been condemned as a fire hazard. (Story on page one.)

Tipoff is scheduled for 8 o'clock as the Mariners seek their second victory against one setback. After opening defense of their league title with a victory over Yuba last Friday, the Tars bowed to Shasta at Redding the next night. Their main problem was missing 15 foul shots so, needless to say, much attention was devoted to the free throw line in practice this week.

Star for Sierra is Harry Benzie, according to Marin Coach Cal Riemcke. He also noted the Sierra coach's son, Ken Hashagen Jr., is a standout.

Riemcke said he'll stick with his usual starting lineup of Ernie Bray and Ron Blum forwards, Mike Rawitser center and John Blomquist and Lynn Livie at guards.

'Shoe' Continues Sizzling Streak

ARCADIA (P)—Willie Shoemaker, on a red-hot riding streak, has run his total number of winners at Santa Anita to 25 with seven in the last two days.

He booted home three straight yesterday, including Ralph Lowe's Tabbe and C. V. Whitney's Swiss Roll in the two divisions of the $17,000 plus Santa Monica Handicap for fillies and mares.

Willie got the mount on Taboo when Johnny Longden turned up ill.

Taboo paid $14.80, Swiss Roll $8.20.

Monti Fights Jinx In San Diego Open

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—It's Friday the 13th—and this may spell double trouble to Eric Monti, first round leader in the $20,000 San Diego Open Golf Tournament, and possibly bring a spot of luck to Arnold Palmer—leading money winner of 1960 and early bust of 1961.

Monti, 42, noted for his fast starts and slow finishes, fired a five-under par 66 yesterday to take the first round lead. Meanwhile, Palmer, who blew out of contention with a wild-fire 12 on the last hole of the first round of the big Los Angeles Open, had a fine 69.

But Monti can get into trouble without the "help" of Friday the 13th after any first round. And when night falls he is expected to be among the also rans here.

"But Friday the 13th won't mean anything to me," said Palmer. "I had enough bad luck on that last hole at Los Angeles to last me through the year."

Monti played a brilliant round yesterday over the flat Mission Valley Country Club course. He was out in 32, back in 34. He had six birdies, one bogey. He tanked one sea-going putt of 35 feet. But the rest of the way his pinpoint approaches set him up in business and he tanked four birdie putts of six feet or less.

Tied for second place, each with 67s, were Gary Player, of South Africa; Jerry Barber, Los Angeles, and Marty Furgol, Cog

Hill, Ill. Player furnished the thrill of the day for many of the 3,500 spectators. There is a $10,000 prize for anyone getting a hole-in-one on the 207-yard, par-3 18th hole. Gary hit his tee shot to the front of the green and it rolled straight for the pin, ending up about 12 inches short of the cup.

Tribe To Release Newk; Antonelli Now Dean Of Staff

CLEVELAND (P)—The Cleveland Indians announced today they are asking waivers on veteran pitcher Don Newcombe for the purpose of giving him his unconditional release.

The 34-year-old hurler was purchased from Cincinnati last July.

His major league record, which began with Brooklyn in 1949, is 149 victories and 90 defeats. He reached the heights of his career in 1955 with a 20-5 record and in 1956 with a 27-7 record. Both were pennant winning years for Brooklyn.

The move leaves Cleveland with a remarkably young pitching staff. At 30, Johnny Antonelli becomes the dean of the hurlers.

Banks Signs—$55,000

CHICAGO (P)—Ernie Banks, the Cubs' slugging shortstop, signed his 1961 contract for an estimated $55,000 yesterday.

Don Drysdale of the Los Angeles Dodgers repeated as National League strikeout king in 1960 with 246.

Early Season Showdown; 2 Others Games On Tap

The second game of a season doesn't decide a championship, but in the case of the Marin County Basketball League tonight's meeting between Tamalpais and Marin Catholic high schools could go a long way toward deciding the 1961 titlist.

At least that's what many local fans feel as the pre-season favorites clash head-on in Marin's Greenbrae gymnasium for the first time in the round-robin schedule.

Last month in the league's Christmas tournament Marin Catholic downed Tam 35-23 for the championship, but times have changed since then and tonight's fray looks like a toss-up. Tam fans noted the Indians have improved with the transfer of big Pete Dornbach from forward to center, a move that has strengthened their rebounding. Last Friday Dornbach was named "Prep of the Week" for his outstanding showing in a 46-31 victory over San Rafael.

ADDED THREAT

Marin Catholic, meanwhile, has displayed some improvement of its own, especially the added scoring threat of Gary Ragghianti. In the tourney win over Tam three Wildcats—Ed O'Connell, Jerry Smith and Jim Soden—scored 33 of the 35 points. In the past two games Ragghianti has contributed 19 points, including 9 in last Friday's 37-25 league-opener win over Novato, to provide better balance.

Tam Coach Eddie Chavez announced one change in his starting lineup. Dennis Langhoff will start at forward in place of Connie Hoetger who has a leg injury. Hoetger will be available for action, however. Other starters will be Norm Kreuter, Pete Dornbach, recovered from an ankle injury, Bob Melbern and Charles Bullock.

Marin's lineup will be Smith, Ahern, Soden, O'Connell and Ragghianti.

A capacity crowd is expected for the 8:30 o'clock varsity contest. A Class B preliminary game will start at 7 o'clock.

Two other league games are on the menu tonight with Redwood Giants invading Novato and San Rafael going to Drake. Redwood beat Drake 29-28 last week while San Rafael and Novato were losing to Tam and Marin.

Redwood Coach Dick Hart announced two lineup changes due to sickness and injury.

Don Bowen will start for the ailing Mike Hoffman and Ned Griffith will replace the injured Herb Schreiber.

Pro Football Should Lower Prices; Trade McCovey? Not Wanted

Unless the smug faced boys in the executive offices of our pro football teams want to plead guilty to racketeering, they'll have to back down on the gouge of admission prices.

The prices asked for admission are unreasonable. Sure, I'll admit it, the same hue and cry has been screamed from the roof-tops for years, but evidently by a minority, or by those with tenor rather than bass vocal powers.

Football, especially the pro variety, is operated strictly on the profit and loss system. And woe be it to the coach unfortunate enough to come up for a hike in salary, when red ink, or more losses than are expected, show up on the ledgers.

A LOT of people have wondered why Willie McCovey hasn't been trade bait. And today I'm able to give you strictly the lowdown on the situation—no clubs wanted the guy.

No much palava has been said about Willie hitting Japanese pitching that it becomes sort of sickening. If he couldn't hit that type of pitching, then he shouldn't be considered a major leaguer.

And strange as it may be the Giants, making desperate efforts to improve for 1961, found that even Orlando Cepeda, strong first sacker, was not bait in trading circles. Most of those who were interested in him couldn't go for the price. And thus a balloon blows right up in your face. Nobody wanted McCovey and few, if any, would talk trade talk for Cepeda, under the Giants' terms.

School Chiefs Due At Meeting

Three Marin County school administrators will be featured at the Monday meeting of the Marin Aid to Retarded Children at 8 p.m. at the group's work center on the San Rafael High School campus.

Dr. Richard Hinze, assistant county superintendent of schools, will discuss the county's plans for special education. Daryl A. Hopkins, coordinator of special education, will speak on the program now being offered mentally deficient children. M. F. Gardner, guidance consultant, will explain the theory behind psychological testing of mentally retarded children.

Teachers of special classes in the county are to be honored guests and will be introduced by Mrs. Philip Lemler, president of MARC.

Students At State Colleges Doubled

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The State Department of Education reports that the number of full-time state college students has more than doubled in the past seven years.

The department said that there were 27,785 students registered on 11 campuses in 1952-53. The number for 1959-60 was 61,330 on 14 campuses and three off-campus centers.

Grover Everett of Greenville, N.C., will captain the 1961 North Carolina cross-country team. A junior, he won the Atlantic Coast Conference run last fall.

Rules Makers Study Return To Free Sub

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — A group of college sports officials with the hopeless job of trying to please everyone started a three-day annual session today. It is the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. Rules Committee, headed by Gen. Robert Neyland of Tennessee. Its rulings will determine how college football will be played next fall.

The big issue, as usual, is the substitution rule. Last year the committee, consisting of representatives from the eight NCAA districts and two lifetime members designated members at large, came up with the "wild card" rule as a compromise for coaches who wanted unlimited substitution and those who wanted to curb substitutions still further.

It permitted a coach to send in one player between any two plays, and consequently was a license for coaches to call the signals.

COACHES' SUGGESTIONS The American Football Coaches Assn.'s suggestions drawn up at Pittsburgh last week were to be presented to the rules committee today by Coach Jack Curtice of Stanford, new AFCA president, for its consideration.

Curtice said a consensus of coaches showed a slight majority favoring a return to free and unlimited substitution, meaning a return to two-platoon football.

Neyland said each suggestion of the AFCA committee will receive thorough consideration.

Other AFCA suggestions to be taken up include the finding of a more satisfactory way of recording substitutions, the right of a kicking team to down the ball anywhere on the field, clarification of the rule concerning impetus in cases where a player intercepts a pass close to the goal and steps into the end zone, and the prohibiting of teams or conferences from varying NCAA rules in games without specific permission.

Piloting Course Starts Next Week

Marin Power Squadron's spring course in piloting will start next Thursday at College of Marin, it was announced today by Commander Alfred J. Schwarz.

First class in the 14-week course will start at 7:30 p.m. in Room 67 at the college in Kentfield.

Giants Ask Action On Park: Wind, Scoreboard Etc., Etc.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants want to know when they are going to get some action at Candlestick Park. From the city, that is.

In a letter to Mayor George Christopher yesterday, Vice President Chub Feeney of the Giants asked:

"When are we going to get action on the batter's background... the scoreboard... the wind barrier... and the landscaping?"

Walter Haas, president of the city's Park and Recreation Commission, looked at Feeney's letter and raised some questions of his own:

"Who pays the bill? The non-profit Stadium Corp.? The Giants? The Recreation and Park Commission?"

Ray Kimball, of the commission staff, said there is an appropriation of $50,000 for repair and maintenance of Candlestick Park, "but there is a question as to whether this money can be used for the new installations sought by the Giants."

Christopher sighed and said, "Please, gentlemen, let's see that the stadium is in the best possible condition by opening day."

YANKEE DOLLARS

Mick, Maris, Moose Reject Contracts

NEW YORK (UPI) — It's too early to tag a "holdout" label on an unsatisfied player but the fact is that at least three top ranking members of the New York Yankees have rejected first offers and demanded more sizeable increases.

The three are Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris and Bill Skowron. Each has been given a raise over last year's salary. Each believes the raise is insufficient.

One who accepted a "slight increase" was Yogi Berra, who signed yesterday for just over $50,000, a sum he received last year for hitting .276 in 120 games.

The only other Yankee to come to terms is reserve infielder Joe De Maestri, who signed his 1961 contract two weeks ago.

"All the contracts have been mailed out," said General Manager Roy Hamey. "There are no cuts for anybody. A few have been offered the same salaries but they are in the minority."

"We won the pennant and I don't see any reason why anybody particularly deserves a cut."

OFFERED $65,000

Mantle has been offered a boost of $5,000 to $65,000. It is believed he is holding out for a restoration of the full cut of $10,000 he took last year. Mickey batted under .300 but he led the league with 40 home runs, was outstanding in the World Series and finished second in the American League's Most Valuable Player poll.

Maris, reportedly is seeking a 100 per cent increase of his $20,000 salary. He has been offered $27,500. The strapping outfielder led the league in runs batted in last year and was voted the A.L.'s most valuable performer.

"I have a date with Maris on the 22nd of this month," said Hamey, "but I may see him tomorrow or the next day, as long as he is in town, I don't expect any difficulty with him, or with anybody else for that matter."

Skowron, who received $22,500 last year, also is seeking $40,000 for next season. He, too, has been offered a $5,000 raise. He enjoyed his best year in 1960, leading the club with a .309 batting average, 91 runs batted in and 26 home runs.

"It's high time I made good money," he said, "Each year I was held down by an injury and I felt it wasn't fair to hold up the club for a big increase. But I played a full season and I feel I'm not asking for too much."

Fish Conveyor Operation Applied For

A Marshall fisherman yesterday applied to the Army Corps of Engineers for permission to build a fish conveyor which has been in operation for almost a week.

Merle S. Rocca seeks approval of the 80-foot-long conveyor which unloads fish from boats on Tomales Bay and conveys them ashore for loading onto trucks.

The conveyor is now on the property of the Tomales Bay Oyster Co., with whom Rocca reportedly has verbal permission for occupancy. The conveyor was recently moved from the adjoining property of George Rupp, who ordered Rocca to move the facilities when Rupp purchased the land about a year ago.

Since the conveyor was moved, Rupp has protested its existence to the Marin County Planning Commission.

According to B. D. Dobbs, principal planner for the Marin County Planning Department, Rocca constructed the conveyor without applying to the commission for permission.

Architectural supervision forms have been sent Rocca, Dobbs said. When the forms are returned, the planners will investigate the fish conveyor to see whether it meets county standards.

The pier is located about a mile south of Marshall on Tomales Bay. Objections to the construction must be sent in triplicate to the Army Corps of Engineers, 180 New Montgomery Street, San Francisco, by Feb. 10. The Army's interest in such construction extends only insofar as it concerns public rights of navigation.

EAST ALL-STARS CONFIDENT OF BOWL VICTORY

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — "This is one of the finest east teams ever assembled and we intend to take Sunday's Pro Bowl Game."

Nick Skorich of Philadelphia, who is helping Buck Shaw ready the East for the National Football League's 11th annual All Star game, is the author of the above quotation.

Skorich believes the East has the speed to go all the way, and he says the passing game should be very effective because the Eagles' Norm Brocklin will be throwing to three of his favorite targets — Bobby Walston, Pete Retzlaff and Tommy McDonald, his Philadelphia teammates.

Johnny Unitas, Baltimore quarterback who will direct the West forces, agrees with Skorich that the East should have an advantage with Van Brocklin throwing to men whose skills are known to him.

"But we have some fine ends on this Western Conference squad, and I think we should do all right," Unitas volunteered.

Oh, Dear! Lady Referee Banned In S.F. Games

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Mrs. Carol Ziegler got a lot of work refereeing high school basketball games in Iowa but she can't work for the school system here.

"Just say it's not my policy to use women referees," Elwood Lang said last night. Lang is supervisor of athletics for San Francisco public schools and in charge of assigning officials.

Mrs. Ziegler, who is in her 20s, and her husband, a Presbyterian minister, moved here from Ames, Iowa, last fall.

She worked high school games regularly in Iowa and the Northern California Basketball Officials Assn. quickly accepted her application.

Ernie Filiberti, president of the local association, said:

"I watched her in two assignments. She is extremely competent and she has had no difficulty handling the game because she is a woman."

FLAT REJECTION

But Lang, who conceded he had never watched the young woman officiate at a ball game, flatly rejected the idea of her working here.

"Mrs. Ziegler is a charming person," Lang said, "but I believe the type of basketball

BLUM HONORED AS TOP BACK FOR MARINERS

Quarterback Ron Blum, guard Morrey Nelson, and halfbacks Fred Pfeffer and Dennis Untermyer won top honors this week as College of Marin honored its 1960 football squad at an assembly.

Blum was named outstanding back; Nelson the outstanding lineman; Pfeffer was cited for his all-around gentlemanly conduct and Untermyer won an award titled "Mr. Determination."

Seven-Year-Old Gets Trophy For Regatta Victory

Belvedere Sailing Society's annual post-season Commodore's Regatta trophies will be presented at the organization's dinner meeting Monday at the San Francisco Yacht Club.

Ronald M. ## The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS,
I-J Fish and Game Writer

Sacramento River Yields Salmon; Steelhead Addicts Make The Grade

From Brownie's Boat Park (one mile north of Meridian on the Sacramento River) comes word that some fair to good catches of salmon are being made daily. That isn't surprising as this is the time of the year when we expect such tidings. In fact, from Colusa upstream to above Redding scattered reports indicate it is no fluke, but the real McCoy. Should also be steelhead in that upper Sacramento River region, but I have no news of any being caught.

STEVENS

Speaking of steelhead, here are some congratulations to a few addicts who made the grade recently: Inspector Babe Harrier, who has made himself a reputation by consistently taking limits or near limits in the Russian; Ernie Garaas for the five pounder taken in Brown's Pool on the Russian; Frank Peterson for the five and nine he took from Brown's Pool, and E. R. Stowell for the eight and nine pounders taken from the Cloverdale area.

SURPRISINGLY, the Gualala River came through in great shape over the weekend. Quite a few steelhead to a top of 14 pounds was reported. I learned that Ernie Titus had taken two nice fish from the Gualala on Tuesday and left early Wednesday morning, for another shot.

The Gualala was bar bound for a while on Tuesday night, but was opened almost immediately. Might be a good run coming in.

I AM asked rather often, about accommodations for overnight guests along that section of the Mendocino coast. There are accommodations at the Gualala Hotel, of course, and there is also a motel and some private homes in the neighborhood. I like to suggest that for the guy or gal who has a few days to spend in that country, the Garcia Hotel in Point Arena is a good bet. Easy drive to the Gualala, Cedar Creek, Brush Creek, the Navarro as well as the Garcia. Whether you stay at the hotel or not the owners, Ernie Titus or his fishing wife, will be happy to give you the current conditions. Call them at their home or at the hotel. There are fish in the Garcia.

but they haven't been very hungry for some time now. Same is true of other coast streams. Water clear and low in most of them.

CONGRATULATIONS to Jack Vetess who caught a 52-inch sturgeon while fishing for strippers with a 15-pound test line. Joe Nerviani of Joe's Launching at Santa Venetia Slough reported the catch and sadly told me that fishermen and fish have been very scarce this week. Joe expects heap much improvement when the spring run gets under way—around late February or early March.

Honorable mention to Nebo Sousa and Jack Ferdinand for getting some beautiful salmon out of Ward's Boat Landing near Colusa on the Sacramento River.

HAL BOENNER of Lee's Bait Shop in Oakland, called to tell of a few hardy souls who bucked the fog and the cold and caught fish. Eddie Reed took a 16-pound, 10-ounce striped off Sacramento Point, using sardine baits. Fred Moffat landed one 8 and one 17 pounds at the same place. Ray McCarthy took a 16-pound, 12-ounce striped from the Selby area in the upper San Pablo Bay, and George Eong and friend registered limits to 11 pounds in the Antioch sector using anchovies for bait.

Striper fishing continues hot in the Richardson Bay-Red Rock area. The boat, Troller, took seven limits to 10 pounds in the bay on Sunday, and five limits to 11 pounds in the Red Rock area on Monday and 20 bass to nine pounds on Tuesday. The boat Pegren took 21 bass to 10 pounds trolling in Richardson Bay on Sunday.

Huskies, USC Top Coast Cage Schedule

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Washington's Huskies challenge the Big Five Conference leading Southern California Trojans tonight and tomorrow night in the West Coast's top basketball action at the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

The Huskies split with UCLA in Seattle last week while the Trojans were dumping defending champion California twice.

CARDS AT OREGON
Stanford plays Oregon at Eugene in a non-conference pair.

To beat USC, Washington must stop the smooth shooting John Rudometkin who hit 39 points in two victories over California. California Coach Rene Herrerias lauded the lanky junior as "probably the best basketball player on the Pacific Coast. He can kill you from within 10 feet on the basket, and he showed us that he can hit from outside as well."

Veterans Clint Names and Bill Hanson pace Washington. Against UCLA they averaged 15 and 14 points.

UCLA will be slightly favored over the Arizona Wildcats of the Border Conference, but the Bruins can't afford a shooting lapse such as they suffered in losing to Washington 48-45. In that game they hit only 10 of 61 field tries for a 16 per cent average.

California could be virtually knocked out of the title contention should the Bruins beat them. Already 0-3, the defending champs would be reduced to the role of spoiler should they take loss No. 4.

Grid Cards Sign Star From Canada

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The football Cardinals reached over into their thorny quarterback problem. They have signed former Montreal Alouette ace Sam Etcheverry.

But there is some question of whether they can legally hang on to him.

Cardinal Coach Frank Pop Ivy, would say only of the hoped for acquisition: "He'll add depth and valuable experience to our quarterback staff."

He was signed to an outright two-year contract, reportedly in excess of $20,000 a year.

Etcheverry's signature on the contract ended nearly a week of frantic negotiations between he and Wolfner and legal consultations involving Pete Rozelle, NFL commissioner; Syd Halter, Canadian League commissioner; and Marshall Leahy, NFL attorney.

WCAC Basketball Play Slows Down For Book Work

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Basketball action slows off this weekend in the West Coast Athletic Conference as most squads concentrate on books pending mid-year exams.

The only conference game sends San Jose State against University of the Pacific at Stockton Saturday night. Santa Clara continues its three-game slate in Honolulu and on Saturday night Pepperdine plays San Fernando State at Los Angeles.

SWINGIN' SKIS ON FILM

Top skier Herman Primus kicks up a plume of powder snow during a run on his adopted home slopes at Sun Valley, Idaho. Primus and other outstanding skiers are featured in noted ski-photographer Warren Miller's latest film, "Swingin' Skis" which will be shown in San Francisco's Nourse Auditorium next Tuesday, 8:15 p.m. The 90-minute film is a sound-color production.

BOWLING

Two substitutes captured the spotlight at this week's Coffee Cuppers League at Greenbrae Lanes.

Dempsey Mooromsky, sub on the Richard Peters lineup, blasted the pins for a sizzling 519 series on games of 161, 200 and 153. Another sub, Jean Gaffney on the Ed Sabo Real Estate quarter, turned in a fine 505 on 182-191-132. Third place honors went to Lee Goltsch as her 502 total led Redwood Motors to a great team effort of 1926 total pins. Her teammates and scores were Dot Reiman and Jean Molino each with 481 and Jeanne Blumenfeld with 462.

Other high scorers were Cris Griffen 453 and Pat Frick 453.

A CAST of characters representing Caesar's Den at Nave Lanes in a grudge match with Pinky's Pizza Parlor the other day adopted some colorful names. They were Milt Schwartz as Ben Hur, Bob Nave as Nero, Bill Nave Jr. as Marc Antony, Russ Reynolds as Brutus and Jackie Vallee as Marcus.

The imposing nom de plumes must have been some help for they won the match by 23 pins over Pinky's Art Schattie, Al Burns, Bud Benson, Dib Dibler and Bill Ahern.

KOCH OF California League leaders this week were Mac Koch 454, Tom Gould 544, Shirley Endy 492, Shelley Bolic 457 and Sue Anderson 453.

Expansion Of AFL Blocked Until '62

HOUSTON (AP)—Three applications for new franchises were on hand today, but two American Football League owners said they will oppose expansion of the year-old league for the 1961 season.

Commissioner Joe Foss declined to identify the applicants or cities involved as the league began the second day of its first winter meeting.

Unanimous approval by the current eight clubs is needed for expansion. Two owners told reporters they are unalterably opposed to any additions this year.

Foss declined comment on 1961 possibilities, but indicated expansion is a definite possibility for 1962.

"All three groups would like to start the new team this year, but qualify their applications by asking also that they be considered for 1962," he said. "As new teams next year they would receive priority in the next AFL draft."

FIVE CITIES

The three applications actually involve five cities.

"One is from a group that is interested in any one of three cities," Foss said. "They've stated their preferences but the league could select any one."

Late arrival of Oakland representatives caused the owners to consider only routine reports on game officials and television yesterday.

JACKIE PUNG SHOOTS 72 AT MARIN LINKS

That equals men's par for the course.

Meanwhile, the amateur players were up in the 80s, 90s and 100s. Mrs. Robert Waidman of Sonoma won low gross honors with 83 and Mrs. Rudy Samson of the host club was low net at 90-19-71.

Winners in the handicap divisions were:

Class A—Mrs. Don Wilson, 93-14-79; Mrs. William Gleason, 103-18-85; Mrs. Aubrey Babson, 95-9-86.

Class B—Mrs. Harry Serlis, 95-21-74; Mrs. E. W. Dolan, 104-23-81; Mrs. A. E. Wilson, 108-25-83.

Class C—Mrs. Gordon Wardlaw, 99-26-73; Mrs. William McCall, 105-27-78; Mrs. Wayne Young, 111-26-85; Mrs. Elbert Ashland, 112-27-85.

Yanks Want Duke But Small Chance

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The New York Yankees are interested in outfielder Duke Snider of the Los Angeles, but there's very little chance they'll get him.

Yankee General Manager Roy Hamey said in New York Thursday he discussed a Snider deal with the Dodgers while he was on the coast last week. He said Dodger General Manager Buzzie Bavasi didn't give him much encouragement "but he didn't close the door, either."

PRISON HEAD OBJECTS

TV 'Untouchables' On Despite Warning

WASHINGTON (UPI)—All American Broadcasting Co. network television stations broadcast a controversial episode of "The Untouchables" last night despite a warning from federal prison director James V. Bennett that he would protest the license renewal of any station that carried the show.

Ten of the stations which put on the program, concerning crime overlord Al Capone, have applications for license renewals pending before the Federal Communications Committee. Bennett sent them telegrams branding the show "defamatory."

"The Untouchables," one of television's top-rated programs, features actor Robert Stack as the late crimebuster Eliot Ness, head of a group of federal agents set up in the 1920s to break the Capone mob.

The program runs fictionalized versions of Ness' activities and frequently shows him fighting criminals with whom he never actually came in contact.

Last night's program was the final installment of a two-part series depicting the transfer of Capone from Atlanta Penitentiary to Alcatraz. The show indicated Capone tried to escape, assisted by a prison guard.

Bennett complained to ABS earlier about the first installment of the series broadcast last week.

He wired ABC president Leonard H. Goldenson that the program was "an utterly fantastic portrayal" of the Capone transfer. He said it showed "honorable and courageous officers of the prison service as venal."

Omar F. Elder Jr., vice president and general counsel for ABC, replied, "This is to assure that there was certainly no desire or intention to imply any reflections on the integrity of the Bureau of Prisons."

He said, "we do not consider nor do we believe that the television audience considers that the portrayal of one or two individual guards in an unfavorable light on a particular program is representative of or casts any general reflections upon the integrity of other members of that group."

Measure Would Protect Teachers

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A measure to protect probationary teachers in small districts has been introduced in the legislature.

The bill by Assemblyman Edward Elliott (D-Los Angeles) says probationary employees of any school district may be fired only for cause. At present, the restriction applies to districts with an average daily attendance of 85,000 or more.

The measure gives all probationary employees the right to a hearing on their dismissal.

3 Survive Crash

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—One crewman is dead but three others have survived the crash of their six-engine Air Force jet bomber near Mt. Palomar Observatory.

The B-47 crashed and burned yesterday, setting off a five-acre brush fire, shortly after taking off from March Air Force Base.

Center Resuming Painting Classes

Marin Jewish Community Center will resume its painting classes taught by Mrs. June Lederman, for beginners Tuesday from 7:30 to 10:10 p.m.

Classes in intermediate painting will resume Thursday at the same hours.

Openings still exist in the center's dance class in cha-cha, meeting Mondays at 8:30 p.m. and the bridge class Tuesdays at 8 p.m.

Ex-Restaurant Cook Is Bad Check Suspect

A Corte Madera bad check suspect was arrested as he waited to collect his unemployment insurance check yesterday in San Rafael.

Conrad Keith Miller, 34, of 280-A Corte Madera Avenue, a former cook at the Captain's Room in Corte Madera, admitted passing a total of $105 in bad checks in Corte Madera.

Sausalito and San Francisco, reported Corte Madera police inspector Harold N. Hockett.

San Rafael police located Miller in the unemployment office on request of Corte Madera officers. He was booked on four counts of passing bad checks in Corte Madera and on a petty theft charge. Hockett said Miller stole some of the

State Diesel Smog Investigation Asked

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A Southern California legislator said today the state should find out if its 28,000 diesel-powered vehicles are adding to California air pollution problem.

Assemblyman Ronald B. Cameron (D-Whittier) said he will introduce a bill to require an evaluation of diesel fumes. So far there is no evidence to show that the fuel adds to smog or causes crop damage, he said.

San Salvador, capital of El Salvador, was founded in 1525 during its deep ocean dives.

Belgian Parliament Votes For Austerity

BRUSSELS (UPI)—The coalition government of Catholic Premier Gaston Eyskens won parliamentary approval today for its austerity program which set off the country's four weeks of strikes and violence.

Eyskens directed his forces from a sick bed as they swept to a victory of 115 to 90 votes, with one abstention, in the chamber of deputies. The bill now goes to the senate where approval is only a formality.

Approval by the lower house of parliament came in the face of bitter opposition from the Socialists who had set off the national series of strikes and violence in attempts to kill the austerity program.

In winning, the government rejected out of hand Socialist offers to end the country's strike chaos through a national summit conference of "men of good will."

The premier, 55, collapsed in parliament yesterday. Doctors said it was due to overstrain apparently brought on by the strike crisis. His condition was not serious.

The country was plagued yesterday by new violence and sabotage attempts that ranged from the hurling of "Molotov cocktails" to releasing panic-causing white mice in a department store.

Marinwood Club Slates Meeting On Education

Marinwood Home and School Club will hold a public meeting Monday night to discuss educational enrichment through community activities.

The meeting is set for 8 p.m. at the Mary Silveira School in Marinwood. Charles L. Convis, club president, said a film will be shown on the Junior Museum of Marin.

Speakers will be Joseph Curtillo, director of music at Dixie School District, who will discuss musical organizations for youngsters; Convis, deputy district attorney, who will talk about Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Little League, and similar youth groups; and Rev. Llewellyn A. White of the Church of Nativity in Marinwood, who will discuss church youth groups.

WORKING ON DECORATIONS for the fashion show "Snowflake Flair" to be held on Tuesday at 1 o'clock in the parish hall are members of the Service

Models Named For League Show

The Service League of St. Paul's Church, San Rafael, has announced the names of models for the fashion show of ski clothes and hand-knit dresses and coats which will be the feature of the "Snowflake Flair" on Tuesday at 1 o'clock in the Parish Hall.

Displaying the fashions from shops in San Rafael and San Anselmo will be Mesdames Russell C. Westover Jr., W. Frank Jones, William Thomas, Evan J. MacIlraith Jr., George Crotts Jr., Norman Bourke, and Richard Hanna, of San Rafael; David Stewart and H. D. Rothrock of San Anselmo; and Messrs. Norman Bourke and Norbert Krier, San Rafael.

Preceding the fashion show, dessert and coffee will be served and guests will remain for an afternoon of bridge.

Sempervirens Plan Pot Luck Dinner

The Sempervirens Club of the Mill Valley Community Church will hold its regular third Friday pot luck dinner at 7 p.m., Jan. 20 at the church.

For the program professor John W. Bowman of the San Francisco Theological Seminary will talk on "Glimpses of Japan" illustrating his talk with slides.

El Marinero To Hear Talk On Insignia

The El Marinero Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution will meet at a 12m. luncheon on Monday, Jan. 16 at the Fairfax home of Mrs. Andrew Komora. The program will be a talk by Dr. Eugenia G. Campbell, a past regent, on DAR insignia. Annual state and national reports of chairmen will also be given.

Mrs. Kenneth R. Gregory, regent, presided at the December meeting held in the Mill Valley home of Mrs. William A. Marcus. Co-hostesses were Mesdames Gerhard Becker, Henri Boussy, Thomas Harris, A. A. Laurence and Arthur L. Piver. Mrs. Earl P. Bartholomew, first vice regent and program chairman had charge of the exchange of gifts between members, and the games played. Guests present were Mesdames Ashley Alexander, Herbert G. Pratt, Andrew Komora, J. W. Huyssoon and Miss Ann Gregory, daughter of the regent.

A tea honoring the winners of the DAR Good Citizenship awards in the Marin County high schools, and a celebration of the eleventh anniversary of El Marino Chapter will take place at the February meeting.

CAMP FIRE MEMENTOS?

Do you have any mementos of your days in the Camp Fire Girls program from 1914 on? If so, would you share them with others in a display depicting the progress of the Marin County Council to be exhibited at the "Bloomer Girl Tea" on Jan. 27.

This event will honor all who have participated in the Camp Fire Girls over the years and it is hoped that many articles will be offered to stimulate the well known reunion phrase, "Remember when . . . ?"

If you have any memorabilia, call the Camp Fire Girls office in San Rafael or Mrs. Robin Galloway, Kentfield, chairman of the Golden Jubilee Adult Celebration.

Methodist Groups Will Meet Monday

The Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Mill Valley Methodist Church will meet jointly Monday, Jan. 16 at 8 p.m. in the fellowship hall of the church.

The program will consist of a film entitled "Make All Things New" explaining work of deaconesses in Methodist churches. All friends and members are invited.

Invitations Are Extended For 'Paradise' Dance

Invitations are being mailed for St. Rita's annual informal dinner dance, "A Night in Paradise" which will be held on Saturday evening, Feb. 4 at the Meadow Club, Fairfax.

Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served from 7 to 8 p.m. followed by roast beef dinner. Dancing will begin at 10 p.m. and will continue until 2 a.m. Chairman for this sixth annual parish affair is Mrs. Joseph Ghiringhelli, assisted by the following: reservations, Mrs. Paul McArdle and Mrs. Wesley Phelps; invitation, Mrs. Ted Parnow; publicity, Mrs. M. O. Vanni; grab bag, Mrs. Harold Ryan; decorations, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ratto, and finance, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crean.

Honorary chairman for the dance which will benefit the Parish Building Fund, is Rev. Jeremiah V. Gleeson, pastor of St. Rita's.

Open Door Club Will See Film

Dr. and Mrs. Roland Vetter, newly elected vice president of the Open Door Club will open the year's programs with a film "The King's River" at tonight's meeting to be held in Trevitt Hall at 8 o'clock.

The regular pot luck supper will be served at 7 followed by a devotional led by Mrs. Philip Dickinson. Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson, co-presidents, will present new ideas for the coming year and they urge the attendance of all interested.

Mad Hatter Theme For View Show

A merry Mad Hatter blows into the Ondine on Thursday for "Fashions With a View" and brings a bundle of "Straws In the Wind" . . . straws so delectable and disarming they will catch the eye of the policeman at the corner, the man in your life and many compliments.

For early birds who need a spring bonnet to brighten their mid-winter morale, there will be straws that are high and handsome for San Francisco suits, straws' saucy and sombreroed for the sleeveless silhouette, straws scooped and scalloped, ribboned and rosed to blow beautifully through spring.

Fashion decrees "the news is—you will wear a hat," so Thursday's Mad Hatter, alias Mrs. Harry Pierce, has snooped and spied to track down the straws that will make spring conversation. They will be teamed with town and country suits and dresses to complete a tone-on-tone ensemble or contrast with the season's best black, beige or white.

Welcomed as the special guest with a viewpoint will be a distinguished member of the diplomatic service from India and his wife.

Reservations to enjoy Fashions With a View at 12:30 o'clock may be made by calling The Ondine.

and Mr. Norman Bourke who will do the commentary. Dessert and coffee will precede the show. (Jim Kean photos)

Marin Women

SECOND SECTION Independent Journal, Friday, January 13, 1961 15

Marin Catholic Club To Hear High School Children

Mother will leave dad at home to baby-sit when the Marin Catholic Women's Club meets for its annual dinner Wednesday evening, Jan. 18.

Beginning at 6:30 p.m. the winner in the art class insignia competition will be selected by popular choice. The contest under the direction of Sister Margaret Angela is for the best insignia design to be used by the Mothers' Club as its official seal.

Mrs. Frederic Teller, contest chairman, announces that all entries will be on exhibition, with plenty of time for study by the mothers before dinner is served at 7:30 p.m.

Following dinner a brief business meeting will be conducted by president Mrs. Edward Ravizza.

The high school choral group, directed by Sister Magdalena Mary, will then entertain with selections from "Sound of Music" and "Oklahoma!" This all-girl chorale sang carols over KTIM during the holidays.

Mrs. Steve Zappetini, chairman, states that reservations must be made by Jan. 13 with Mrs. Dominic Basile of 208 El Prado, San Rafael.

Junior mothers will be hostesses.

Mrs. Peter Sarocka, general chairman of the Marin Catholic High School Women's Club's annual St. Patrick's Day fashion show, is calling a volunteer's meeting Monday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

This is the club's largest undertaking of the year, and Mrs. Sarocka urges as many as possible to attend.

Club Garden Section Will Meet Thursday

The Outdoor Art Club's Garden Section will have a coffee and dessert meeting Jan. 19 at the clubhouse starting at noon, according to section chairman Mrs. Wayne Bingham.

Members and their guests will hear Mrs. C. C. Miller talk on ferns with emphasis on the Marin varieties. Mrs. Miller, a well known authority on all types of ferns, says that the months of January and February are ideal for their transplanting and propagation.

Nancy Zimmerman Is Bride Of Daniel Buscemi

Airman 1/C Daniel S. Buscemi of the 666th Air Control and Warning Squadron on Mt. Tamalpais and Nancy Ann Zimmerman were married Monday, Jan. 9, in a civil ceremony performed at the court house in San Rafael.

The single ring rites were performed at 2 o'clock by Judge David Baty.

The bride wore a pink satin dress with fitted bodice and full skirt and completed her costume with a white hat and veil. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moore of Washington, D.C., and was graduated from St. Cecilia's Academy for Girls there. Before coming here for her marriage she was employed as a secretary at West Palm Beach, Fla.

Her husband attended schools in New York City and was employed by the Coca Cola Company in West Palm Beach before he entered the U. S. Air Force. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bishop of Boynton Beach, Fla.

The newlyweds are living in Mill Valley.

Installation Planned By Golden Star

At a recent meeting of Golden Star Rebekah Lodge 112 at the IOOF Temple in San Rafael plans were discussed for the open installation of officers to be held on Jan. 19 when Mrs. Clifford Winegarden will be seated as noble grand and Mrs. A. F. E. DaSilva, vice grand.

As it was Mrs. James Williams' last meeting as noble grand, her appointive officers were escorted to the center of the hall by Mrs. DaSilva, warden, and Mrs. Kenneth Irwin, conductor, who carried baskets filled with gifts from Mrs. Williams. After these were presented to the officers business was transacted. Mrs. Irwin was named to make arrangements for sending a needy child to vacation at the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs' youth camp in Tuolumne.

Large 1961 calendars marked the officers' stations and calendars and candles were on the tables in the banquet room where refreshments were served after the meeting. Mrs. Williams, chairman of the committee, was assisted by Mesdames Eddie D. Babcock, Lawrence Meyers and Roy I. Lowry.

Ikebana Authority Will Speak Tonight

Norman J. Sparnon, eminent authority on Japanese flower arrangement and counselor-at-large to Ikebana International, has arrived in San Francisco for one month of lectures and classes following his 15,000 mile lecture tour through the United States where he appeared before many Ikebana International Chapters.

Sparnon, an Australian citizen, studied the art of Ikebana in Japan for 12 years following World War II. A dedicated scholar, skilled in classic and abstract work in Japanese flower arrangement, he holds the highest rank of full professor (Seikyoji) in the Classical Ikenobo School of Flower Arrangement, and the rank of executive (Joni-somu) in the Sogetsu School.

Tonight at 8 at the Hall of Flowers, Sparnon will be presented by the Bay Area Chapter of Ikebana International at a slide lecture and flower arrangement demonstration. This meeting is open to the general public.

Beta Sigma Phi Plans Work Party

Mill Valley's Omicron Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will have a work party Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the home of the president, Mrs. Richard Wunderlich of Corte Madera.

Chairmen of various projects are arranging activities for the evening. Mrs. Jack Megarity will work on decorations for the sorority's annual Valentine Ball sponsored by the inter-city council.

Mrs. Alex Almcraants will plan a fashion show for March, while Mrs. Jack Lentz will be discussing the northern California area council's brunch that will take place in the summer.

Working on the scrapbook will be Mesdames Norman Arends and Arthur Lind.

'STRAWS IN THE WIND' and the women who wear them will catch the eye of everyone this spring including the policeman on the corner as evidenced by Mrs. Richard Evans in her new spring bonnet and an officer of the Sausalito Police Dept. Both Mrs. Evans and 'Straws in the Wind' will blow into the Ondine on Thursday for Fashions With a View. (Independent-Journal photo)

Water Ski Club Dance Date Set

Members of the Marin division of the Golden Gate Water Ski Club will hold their annual President's Inauguration Dinner Dance in the Cabana Room of the Hamilton Air Force Base Officers' Club on Saturday, Jan. 21.

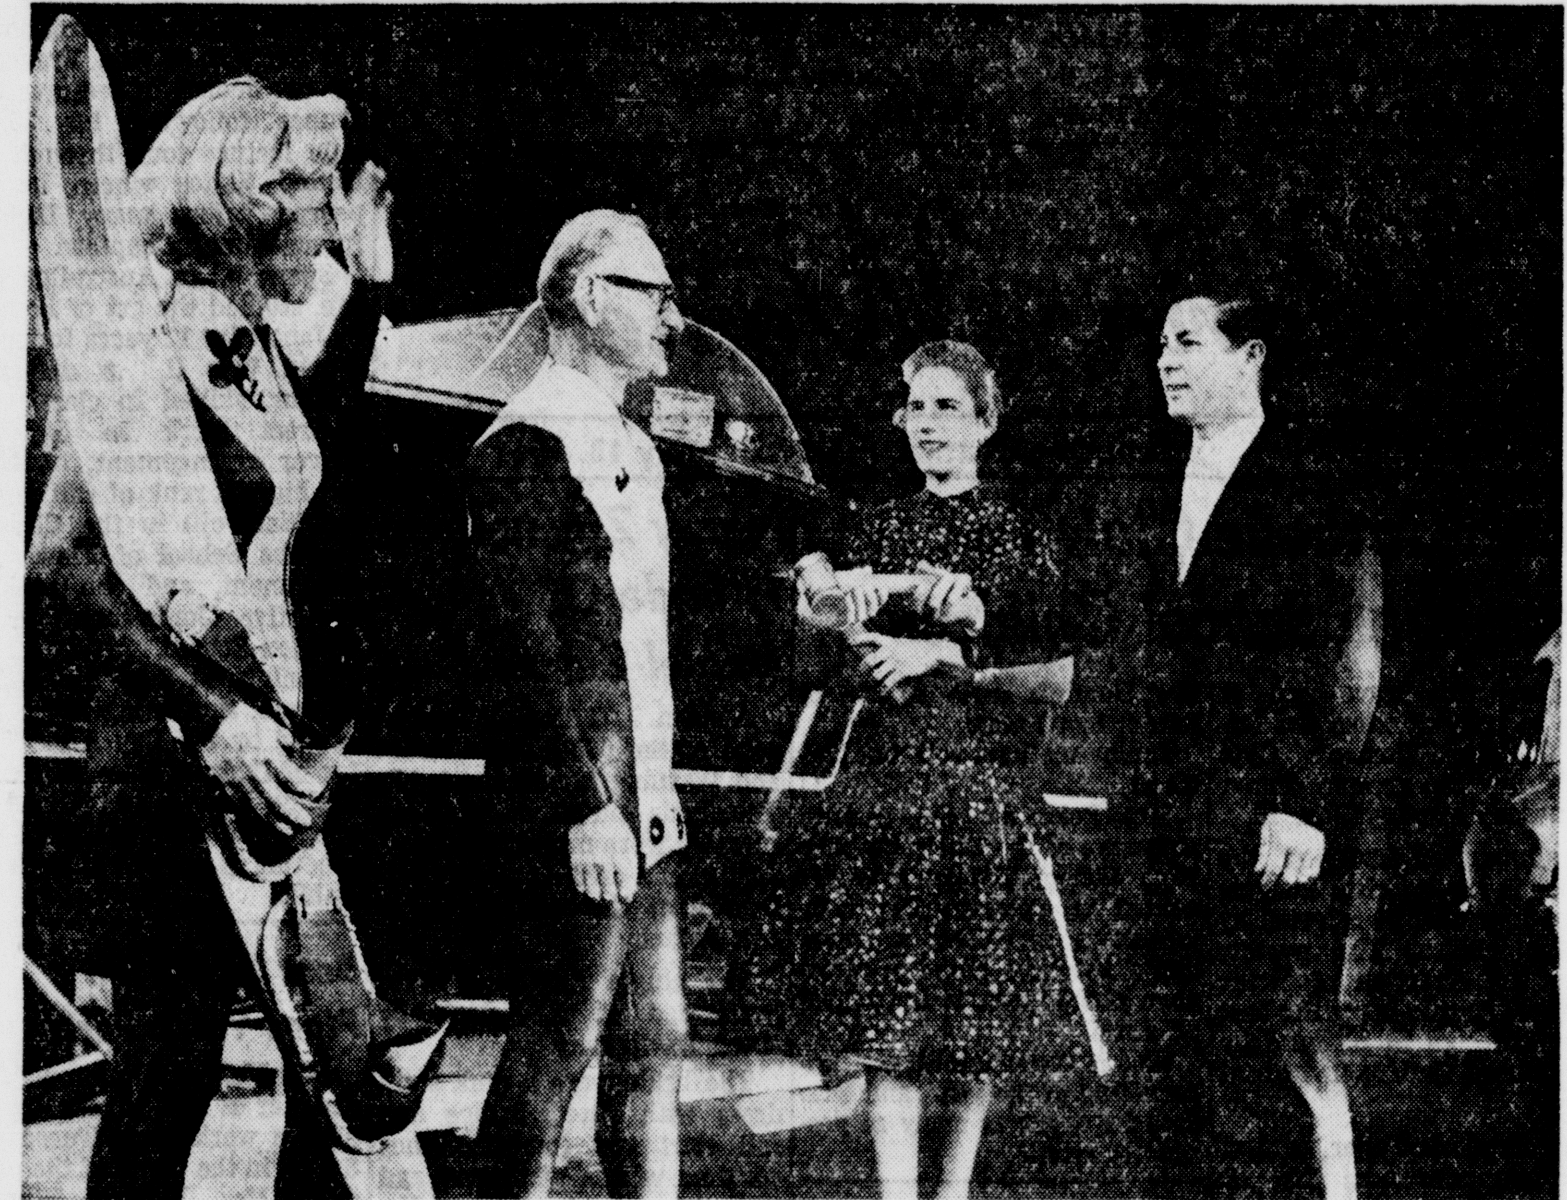

Cocktails will be served at 6:30 p. m. followed by dinner and dancing until 2 a. m. The club is one of the oldest water ski clubs in the Bay Area.

To be installed as president will be Richard Meagor of San Anselmo who will succeed Robert Wineman of Tiburon. Serving with Meagor will be Ben Cessna of Ross, vice president; Mrs. Meagor, secretary; Mrs. Cessna, treasurer and Norman Johnson, sergeant at arms.

During the summer the group skis at Lake Berryessa where an acre is rented and tents set up for the season. It is traditional that members of the Golden Gate Water Ski Club ski on New Year's Day in the Oakland Estuary. Those who participate are dubbed "Eskimos."

General chairman for the dinner dance is Mrs. Richard Gould of Ignacio. Mrs. Meagor is planning the decorations; Mrs. Ralph Devlin of Fairfax the entertainment and Mrs. A. J. Casella of Tiburon is handling tickets.

PARISH SETS DATE FOR 'FOLLIES'

Blessed Sacrament Parish has announced that a "Roaring Twenties Follies" and dance will be held on Saturday evening, Feb. 11 at 8 o'clock at the Parish Hall in Santa Venetia.

The "Follies" show will be presented by members of the Junior Social Service Auxiliary, after its smash performance held last month at the Marin Golf and Country Club proved so successful. The original cast of 44 will bring the guests back to the days of the gay and glorious twenties. After the show, dancing will be to the music of an orchestra.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. Donald J. McCarthy and assisting her will be Mesdames Delbert King, Fred Vincenti, Robert O'Donnell, Joseph Herrera, Joseph Mulqueneey, Al Paczkowski, Dominic Basile, Jack Codding and V. Conway. Acting as master of ceremonies for the evening will be Terrence Heavey.

Luncheon To Fete Radcliffe Dean

The Green Street home of Mrs. William Kent Jr., will be the setting of tomorrow's luncheon meeting of the Radcliffe Club of San Francisco. Miss Mildred P. Sherman, dean of college relations, will be the guest speaker.

Dean Sherman, on tour from Cambridge, is visiting Radcliffe Clubs in Los Angeles, Portland, Seattle and Denver, and plans to spend a week in San Francisco.

Miss Sherman is scheduled to meet with secondary school counselors and Directors of Guidance of public and independent schools in the Bay at tea, Tuesday, Jan. 17, also at the home of Mrs. Kent.

San Rafael P-TA Council Sees Film On Education

San Rafael P-TA Council members were given a glimpse into the possible future of secondary school education at their Jan. 5 meeting, when they viewed a film titled "The School Where No Bells Ring."

The film, produced by a commission of the National Association of Secondary School Principals, depicts a new concept of education at the high school level, developed in recognition of the probability that the current teacher shortage is likely to continue, while the number of students to be educated and the mass of knowledge to be taught are sure to increase.

The plan, developed by Dr. Lloyd Trump and financed by a grant from the Ford Foundation, is based on "teaching Teams" employing the various talents of several teachers and assistant in teaching large numbers of students by means of the combined techniques of large group audio-visual instruction, small group discussion, and independent study.

Following the showing of the film, San Rafael School Superintendent Frank M. Lucas commented upon it in relation to the possibility of future adoption of some of its ideas in the San Rafael District high schools. He announced that the film is available to other groups wishing to view it. Information as to where to write for it can be obtained through the School Superintendent's office.

Almonte Club Will Resume Dinner Dances

The Almonte Improvement Club has decided to resume the candlelight dinner-dances for all members of the family that were formerly very popular, according to Mrs. Jack Shapiro, who will be chairman for the first one set for Friday evening, Jan. 27.

The 7 o'clock dinner given at the Almonte clubhouse will be followed by square dancing and other kinds of dancing.

Serving as co-chairman with Mrs. Shapiro will be Mrs. Bowen, and in charge of the menu and reservations, which should be made as soon as possible, are Mesdames David Lister and Ralph Parlette.

Other committee members are Mesdames Erling Michaelson, John Norall and Paul White, decorations; John Ross, dance arrangements; and Ralph Schwanberg, coffee.

Talk On Iron Curtain Countries Scheduled

"Task Force 62" will be the theme of the luncheon meeting of Marin Federation of Republican Women to be held Tuesday, Jan. 17 at Tamalpais Centre Woman's Club in Kentfield. Speaker will be Norman H. McCollom of Larkspur, head of the education program at San Quentin Prison. He will tell of his observations during a recent trip through the Iron Curtain and show slides.

Mrs. Matthew A. Graham, who is starting her second term as president of the federation, will preside at the meeting.

Reservations for the 12:30 p.m. luncheon, which will be preceded by a social hour are being taken by Mrs. James D. Cowie of San Rafael, Mrs. L. S. D'Anna of San Anselmo and Mrs. Gerald Misner of Novato. All Republican women and their friends are invited.

Center Ball Set Feb. 3 At Fairmont

Invitations to the popular International Hospitality Center Ball were being opened today by Marin County members and friends of the organization. The dinner dance will be held Friday, Feb. 3 at 8 p.m. in the Gold Ballroom at the Fairmont Hotel.

Decorations are under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Cuneo. An orchestra with an additional trio will furnish continuous music during the evening. The honorary chairman for the event is Mrs. George Cameron and the co-chairmen are Mrs. Marshall Madison and Mrs. Lester Goodman.

Marin County sponsors include Messrs. and Mesdames Berrien P. Anderson Robert Blum, Richard Y. Dakin, Roger Kent, Russell G. Smith and Bernard Greef of Santa Rosa.

'Family Togetherness' Theme For Fellowship

"Family Togetherness" will keynote the informal evening planned by the Young People's Fellowship, the junior choir and the Acolyte's Guild when they and their parents attend at box supper at Whitaker Hall, parish house of St. Stephen's Church, Belvedere, tomorrow.

Mickey McGowan, well-known in Marin for organizing square dance groups will be on hand to keep the young people and their parents participating in the lively traditional dances of Europe and early America.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Moore are coordinating the evening's program and will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Dick De Berry, Young People's Fellowship advisors; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davey, advisors to the Acolyte's Guild and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Drechsel, representing parents of the junior choir.

Many Colors

St. Louis manufacturers of children's wear see a many-colored spring ahead. Dress skirts come in three colors, like ribbons on a maypole, or a strong color, such as apricot, is used with beige or other neutral in a linen combination. Cottons come in awning stripes and oversized checks.

Ross Volunteers Presented Awards

Ross Hospital Volunteers held their first meeting of the new year Friday, with the highlight of the session being the awards given by Dr. John Siemens, hospital administrator, to those members of the group who have accumulated 100 or more hours of service.

Those receiving awards were: Mrs. Norma Batdorf, Ross, 500; Mrs. Elmer J. Martin, Belvedere, 200; Mrs. Allan Zeiss, Ross, 200; Mrs. John Allen, Ross, 600; Miss Virginia Voorhees, Ross, 500; Mrs. Richard Sites, San Anselmo, 100; Mrs. Herbert Schuyten, San Rafael, 200; Mrs. David Sederquist Jr., Belvedere, 100; and Mrs. Audrey Konetsky, Kentfield, 200. On addition, awards were given to two former volunteers who spent many hours at Ross Hospital in the past. They are Mrs. Frances Wilson, formerly of San Anselmo and Mrs. Aubrey Mahaney of San Rafael. Both are credited with 400 hours of volunteer work.

Mrs. Paul Spengler, Ross, president and founder of the group was presented with a special award in appreciation for her many hours of service in organizing and operating the Ross Hospital Volunteer Service.

Mrs. Allen showed that the various fund raising activities of the volunteers have been most successful, making it possible to give a substantial sum to the Endowed Bed Fund which is sponsored jointly by Ross Hospital Volunteers and members of the Alpha Omicron Pi Alumni Association of Marin County. The next money raising function of the agenda will be bridge luncheons given by members of both groups. These will be held in March.

Soldiers Pick Milk As Favorite

A 10-year survey by the U.S. Army Quartermaster Corps has turned up the not-so-startling fact that of all the 438 foods available to American soldiers, whole fresh milk is far and away the favorite.

That's right. Milk not only topped the list, but was out in front by a wider margin than any other preference. Fresh milk beat out, among other items in the top 10, grilled steaks, strawberry shortcake, fried chicken, roast turkey—and even French fried potatoes.

Against a top possible mark of 9 on the preference scale used, fresh milk registered 8.6. No other food or beverage was in the "taste stratosphere" with milk. Closest behind were hot rolls, with a score of 8.4 out of a possible 9.

The scoring represented close analysis of 46,638 questionnaires, used in eight separate surveys among a representative sampling of Army troops all over the country. The results showed that, in order, the best liked foods — after fresh milk and hot rolls—were hot biscuits, strawberry shortcake, grilled steak, ice cream, ice cream sundaes, fried chicken, French fried potatoes and roast turkey.

On the other side of the coin, the least liked foods were, in ascending order from the bottom of the list, mashed turnips, broccoli, baked Hubbard squash, fried parsnips, creamed asparagus, cabbage baked with cheese, asparagus with hollandaise sauce, iced coffee, cauliflower with cheese sauce and candied parsnips.

The study was designed to aid the Army Subsistence Center, which plans the master menu for both the Army and the Air Force, to select foods that are nutritious, economical both in raw price and in cost of preparation, in good supply, and, most important, will be consumed. The Army keeps in mind that a food is not doing anybody much good if the men don't eat it.

The survey, then, was planned to find out exactly which of 438 foods—or food forms—the men were going to be happiest with, and therefore, full of.

And, by reason of taste, learned appreciation of food value, and satisfaction, American soldiers picked fresh milk ahead of all the rest.

Homestead P-TA Meet

"From Folk Lore to Space Ship," a panel discussion on libraries, will be the program for the Jan. 17 meeting of Homestead School's P-TA starting at 7:45 p.m. at the school.

Mrs. J. A. Polanshek will be moderator, and members of the panel representing special viewpoints will be Miss Betty Grimm, the principal; Mrs. E. F. Lewis, a teacher; Mrs. Robert Swendemann, a parent who will evaluate particular books; and Mrs. Edward Radenzel, who will talk on a parent's experience with library work.

Director's Wife To Address Assn.

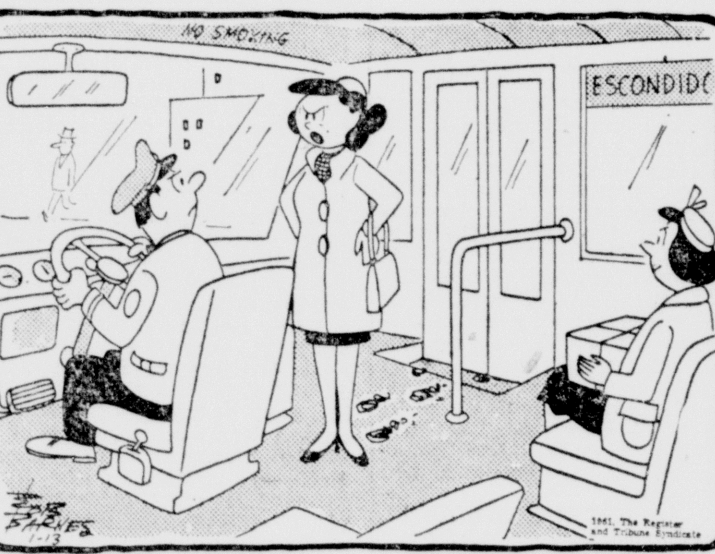

The Women's Association of Westminster Presbyterian Church of Richardson Bay in Tiburon is promised an interesting program in the person of Mrs. C. James Miller, wife of the director of development of the San Francisco Theological Seminary.

Her topic will be "The Seminary Women's Auxiliary, What Is It?" Meeting will be Tuesday, Jan. 17, convening for luncheon at noon.

Presiding will be the president, Mrs. Claude Chapman, and with her will be the new officers installed in December: vice president, Mrs. Milton L. Stannard; secretary, Mrs. William Ellingson; and treasurer, Mrs. Frank MacDonald. Child care will be provided. All interested women in the area are invited.

THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes

"If you're going to stop in the middle of puddles, why don't you carry a dinahv?"

European Trend

Darker cravats and colored shirts will be in vogue for fashionable gentlemen next year. This is a European trend heading for American shores. What's seen, through the periscope, is neckwear largely dark in background with a splattering of color for effect. And the colored shirts are mostly solid shades. But some have small neat patterns.

Italian trends influence you? Then watch for colored silks, fuzzy mohairs, nubby-textured tweeds and velvet upholstery materials. Such were seen at a recent Washington exhibition of Italian fabrics. Imaginative design and bold color sense are the marks most often seen among the collection from Italian fabric artists.

Covered-up Look

The covered-up look is new for evening, balanced by new ways to the air-conditioned look. In the cards are lots of straps, sleeves, stoles, capelets and sheer jeweled, sweater-like jackets. Bodices often are high at front, low at back.

Dominican Convent Alumnae To Hear Talk By Architect

An open business meeting for all members of the Dominican Convent of San Rafael Alumnae Association will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 18 in the Administration Building on the convent campus.

The meeting will begin at 2 o'clock when Henry Schubart Jr., the architect for the new school being planned in the Sleepy Hollow area of San Anselmo, will be the guest speaker. Sister M. Maurice, O.P., principal of the Upper School will also be present.

Mrs. Marcel Smith, Alumnae president, will preside at the meeting and will hear reports from Mesdames Ray Hamilton, Charles H. Clifford, Morris Katkov and R. John Tracy.

Tea will be served after the meeting, and acting as chairmen for the afternoon are Mesdames Wallace Curtis and Robert McGuinness.

Friends Of Arequipa To Mark Eighth Anniversary, Feb. 1

Members of the Friends of Arequipa will observe the eighth anniversary of the founding of their volunteer organization at the annual business meeting and luncheon to be held on Wednesday, Feb. 1, at 10:30 a.m. at the Meadow Club Fairfax.

In 1951, since a small group of women joined forces to raise funds to develop and remodel the Arequipa Sanitarium and the 1957 changeover to the Marin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, the membership has risen to 400. The members are giving their time and entire support and in the past two years have taken on varied community services in Marin County.

In 1959 the interest of the organization broadened and a revision of the by-laws was made to include the grant committee. Mrs. George Britton of Kentfield was chosen chairman.

Grants in 1960 totaling $5,250 were given to the Marin Tuberculosis Association, Marin Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Marin General Hospital, San Rafael General Hospital, and to the County Probation Offices. All grants requested are reviewed annually and are given on a non-profit, non-sectarian, and non-political basis.

Mrs. Thomas Garrett of Corte Madera, president for the past two years, will give the welcoming address and review activities for the past year.

Each outgoing chairman of the 11 units and standing committee will be introduced to give a brief report of their activities.

Mrs. Arthur Wilmes of Fairfax, chairman of the nominating committee, will present the slate of proposed officers for 1961.

Mrs. Thomas Garrett will ask each outgoing unit chairman to introduce their officers for the coming year.

Mrs. Robert Betette, chairman of the luncheon, and Mrs. Richard Basco, chairman of the Madrone Unit, will have on their committee Mesdames Gordon Crosby, John Boyd, Aubrey Mendel, Harry Diner, and Mrs. John Faville.

Honored at the luncheon will be Mrs. Roger Kent of Kent Woodlands, honorary president of Friends of Arequipa, and Past Presidents Mesdames Ivan Sweigart, Ralston Hodgson of Ross, William Blair of Fairfax, and John Finn III of Mill Valley. Mrs. Frank Keaton, Mrs. Paul Spengler, Mrs. John Prescott, Miss Jean Good, Mrs. H. Corwin Hinshaw, Florence Donnelly and Kitty Oppenheimer.

Present officers of Friends of Arequipa are: Mesdames Thomas Garrett, Corte Madera, president; Robert Betette, Corte Madera, vice president; Walter Goepf, Kentfield, recording secretary; Richard Bates, Belvedere, corresponding secretary; Edward Cala, Greenbrae, treasurer; John Finn III, Mill Valley, parliamentarian.

Finance committee: Mrs. S. Robert Farley, Greenbrae, chairman, Mrs. G. B. Zimmerman, San Rafael; Mrs. Walter Meinberger, Kentfield; Mrs. Alfred Massaglia, Kentfield.

Ways and Means committee: Mrs. Robert Walker, San Rafael.

Grant committee: Mrs. George Britton, Kentfield.

Unit Service committee: Mrs. Max Johansen, San Rafael, chairman; Lucas Valley, Mrs. Charles White, Ross; Marindale School, Mrs. W. A. Sweeney, San Rafael; Ross Terrace, Mrs.

Stuffed Peppers Are Economical Taste Tempters

Virtually any kind of leftover cooked meat may be used in stuffing green peppers. But when you have no leftovers, yet want to serve an economical main dish for dinner some chilly evening, don't overlook fresh luncheon meats for this purpose.

Many of these make wonderfully flavorful fillings for pepper cases. As evidence of the versatility of these simple sandwich meats, consider this stuffed pepper recipe. It calls for a can of Snack, a delicately flavored combination of pork and beef, which is mixed with quick cooking rice to make a delightfully seasoned filling.

EASY STUFFED PEPPERS (Six Servings)

- 6 green peppers
  - 1 cup cooked rice
  - 2 cups canned Snack, finely chopped
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt
  - 1/8 teaspoon pepper
  - 2 tablespoons finely minced onion
  - 1/4 teaspoon chili powder
  - 1 egg beaten
  - 1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
  - 1/4 cup grated sharp cheese
- Slice tops from green peppers and remove seeds. Cook pepper cases about 5 minutes in boiling, salted water. Remove peppers and drain thoroughly. Combine rice, meat, seasonings, egg and 1/2 can soup. Blend well. Fill peppers with stuffing. Set upright in shallow baking pan and bake at 375 degrees about 25 to 30 minutes. Remove from oven and pour rest of soup over peppers. Top with grated cheese. Continue baking about 10 minutes longer.

Date Rice Pudding

For a creamy, luscious combination, make your favorite recipe for rice pudding and stir in a handful of chopped fresh California dates along with a little grated orange rind.

C. Hinshaw, Belvedere; San Rafael, Mrs. Fred Enemark, San Rafael.

Public relations: Mrs. Alex Bovee, San Rafael.

Unit chairmen are: Mesdames John Speh, San Rafael, Acacia; H. G. Bruster, San Rafael, Baywood; Arthur Wilmes, Fairfax, Cascade; John Moore, Belvedere, Driftwood; Clyde Healy, San Rafael, Green Oaks; Richard Basco, Larkspur, Madrone; Ralph Tierney, Corte Madera, Millwood; Maurice Salomon, Kentfield, Orchard; Kenneth Treganowen, Kentfield, Sequoia; H. A. Collins, Greenbrae, Sycamore; Fred Enemark, San Rafael, Toyon.

Blue Cheese Meat Loaf Delicious

Meat loaf is a perennial family favorite in most homes, and with good reason.

Always popular with young homemakers because it is so easy to make, and with more experienced cooks because it offers many opportunities for experimenting with different mixtures, meat loaf is one of the most nourishing dishes on the family menu.

Here's a simple meat loaf recipe that has been given real zest through the addition of a cup of American blue cheese, whose pungent flavor will make this meat loaf a favorite for family meals and informal entertaining.

BLUE CHEESE MEAT LOAF

- 1 cup crumbled American blue cheese (about 5 oz.)
  - 2 pounds ground beef
  - 1 egg, slightly beaten
  - 1 can (1 lb.) tomatoes, partly drained
  - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
  - 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- Crumble American blue cheese and let stand about 10 minutes to bring it to room temperature. Mix well with remaining ingredients. Pack in loaf pan, approximately 9x5x3 inches. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, about 1 hour. Serve either hot or cold.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

By RICHMOND BARBOUR, Ph.D.
Guidance Counselor

Here Is List Of Golden Gifts That You Can Give To Children

This is bad luck day, Friday the 13th. Want to make it a good luck day?

Give your children these golden gifts, starting now:

The Gift of Love: Use both words and action in giving love. Tell them you love them. Hug and kiss them while they're little. But more important than that, show your love through your attitudes. Your love is the rock upon which their lives are built.

The Gift of Guidance: Children's characters are learned. You do the teaching. Try to guide them wisely. Have a few clear rules which you enforce consistently. Punish sparingly. Always use the mildest punishment which will teach the needed lesson. Save your spankings for the most serious mistakes they make. Use reasonable rewards for good conduct.

The Gift of Growth: Children need freedom, too. They need to grow into independence. Give them as much freedom as they can handle safely. Expand their freedom as fast as they prove themselves responsible.

The Gift of Faith: Your children have troubles. They worry, feel guilty and are afraid. They need the strength which faith brings. Raise them in a church with an active children's program, and have them take part regularly. Teach them about God; encourage prayer. Let them associate with other church children who have similar beliefs.

The Gift of Fun: Life is real and life is earnest, but life is fun, too. Laugh with your children. Enjoy their jokes. Sing and be happy together. A sense of humor is a wonderful gift. Only you can give it.

READERS' FORUM
(Q) We're thinking of adopting a baby. What age is best? How can we get a child?

A.V.S.

(A) It's safest to adopt a very young child or a baby. You should go to a licensed adoption agency. Be prepared for a long wait.

Marin Contractor Named To Board Of Blind School

Ronald Frank Antonioli, head of the San Rafael contracting firm that bears his name, has been appointed to the advisory board of Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., San Rafael.

The appointment was made by Robert H. Schnacke, president of the school's board of directors.

Antonioli, who lives at 76 Manderly Road with his wife, Gretchen and two children, has lived most of his life in San Rafael. At 22, he went into partnership with his father in the contracting firm known as Frank Antonioli and Son. The elder Antonioli has since retired.

As one of the newest members of the non-profit school's advisory board, Antonioli will be presented to the organization's membership body on Monday, when the board of directors conducts the annual meeting on the campus of Guide Dogs for the Blind.

Demo Club To Meet

Highway Expansion Discussed

The expansion of Redwood Highway through San Rafael will be an excellent opportunity for city beautification, engineer Daniel Coleman told the San Rafael City Beautiful Committee Wednesday.

"It gives a committee such as yours the chance to get beautification in during planning and construction," he told some 18 members at a luncheon meeting in the Peacock Gap clubhouse.

He said his office, which is making a study of proposed freeway expansion and the San Rafael traffic pattern, is going to recommend extensive landscaping along the freeway to the city council.

This would include planters and heavy shrubs and trees along the edges of the freeway as a sound screen and possibly lagoon type pools between the on and off ramps of the proposed interchange near the south entrance to the city.

"Some communities feel freeways are a detriment, but in San Rafael it can become an asset," he said.

Joseph R. Jackson of 9 Fernwood Way, a San Rafael attorney, elected president of the new board of directors Wednesday night.

Other officers chosen were: Winston Harris, 12 Ashwood Court, who was last year's treasurer, vice president; Paul C. Nelson, 44 Robinhood Drive, secretary; Michael Boyle, 83 Knight Drive was again named chairman of the publicity committee, with other committee assignments to be made later.

YOUR BEST BUY DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR IS MERCEDES-BENZ

Mercedes-Benz cars offer more quality, comfort and advanced engineering for your money than any other car. Models start with the 180 four-door sedan priced at about $3500 and range to the $13,500 Mercedes-Benz 300 convertible. Sports cars, too. Come in and look over our Mercedes-Benz cars. Then drive one. European delivery at overseas prices can be arranged.

In imported car sales in the United States, Mercedes-Benz vaulted from number 10 position to number 5 position in October 1960—the highest rank attained to date. This is a remarkable achievement, considering all the other cars in the first ten places were low-priced economy cars.

3R School Director To Address Legislators

James W. Kirchanski, director of the 3R School of San Rafael will address a group of Indiana state legislators on Jan. 19 in Muncie, Ind., on the value of classical education.

He has also been invited to address the Indiana Conservative Club on the same evening and a group of Chicago business men on the following day, on the topic "3R Schools: The Business of Classical Education."

Postmaster Name Sent To Senate

The name of Mrs. Dorothy E. Finn, acting postmaster of Sausalito, was sent to the Senate yesterday by President Eisenhower to be confirmed as postmaster before the president leaves office. Mrs. Finn's was one of many submitted for post offices across the U. S.

She has been acting postmaster since April 30, 1959, replacing postmaster Thomas Bradley, who retired.

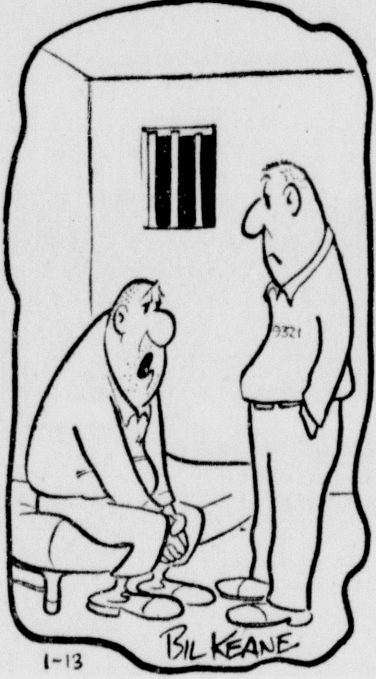

A widow, Mrs. Finn lives at 45 Monte Mar Drive with her son, Carl J. Finn Jr., a student at San Francisco College. She has one daughter, Mrs. John E. Koenig, also of Sausalito.

Guitar Classes Set

A new series of folk guitar classes for adults and high school students will begin next Monday at 7 and 8 p.m. at the Creative Music School in San Rafael. The instructor will be Glen Carlson. Further information may be obtained by telephoning the school.

Trustees Award $133,810 Contract For Dixie School

Dixie School District trustees have awarded a $133,810 contract for construction of an addition to Santa Margarita School to Foster Construction Co. of Petaluma.

Construction will include six regular classrooms, a library, speech and remedial classroom, lavatories, grading, turfing, paving and drainage.

School officials said the addition is expected to be ready for use next fall.

It is being financed as part of a three-million-dollar 30-year loan made available by the state after approval of the voters in May, 1955.

Postmaster's was the lowest of eight bids received. The highest was approximately $171,000. The school now has 12 regular classrooms.

The board, meeting Wednesday, approved structural drawings for the new Don Timoteo School to be located on Trellis Drive near Arias Way.

Asst. Supt. Joseph B. Goff said the $368,000 building will probably be ready for use next fall, but not by the opening of the school year.

Transfer of about one-tenth of an acre at the Santa Margarita School site to the adjoining Marineland School (belonging to the county) was approved on condition that the county develop an entrance on the west side of Marineland School that would serve both schools.

The board granted maternity leave to Mrs. Jeanne Hoyt, first grade teacher at Santa Margarita School, and Mrs.

CORNELL CAPA

Shell test drivers add a "fifth wheel" to their cars for precise distance measurement during mileage tests. It helps them record performance to a decimal point.

BULLETIN:

Shell discloses the nine ingredients in today's Super Shell—and the remarkable things they do to give your car top performance

Super Shell gasoline, with nine ingredients, is now in San Rafael. Today's formula contains cresyl-diphenyl-phosphate—a new, improved version of TCP. Read how this patented additive increases mileage, releases power, and helps your car give top performance

TODAY, every Shell dealer in this area has remarkable Super Shell in his pumps.

A notice on each Super Shell pump promises that this gasoline will give your car top performance. Shell's scientists want you to know why they can make this promise.

Ingredient #1 is TCP for power, mileage and longer plug-life

Super Shell now contains an even better version of this famous additive. Its chemical name is cresyl-diphenyl-phosphate.

TCP* additive can give your car up to 15 per cent more power; up to 17 extra miles per tankful; and can make plugs last up to twice as long.

New TCP does this by neutralizing certain harmful effects of combustion deposits. It is scientifically formulated to keep them from glowing when hot—a major cause of power loss. Also to keep them from diverting your spark—a major cause of "missing."

Ingredient #2 is "cat-cracked" gasoline for power with a purr

This is petroleum that has actually cracked under 900-degree heat and catalytic action. Its heavier molecules have been shattered into livelier, lighter ones.

The result is a super-octane ingredient that makes your engine purr with power the moment you put your foot down.

NOTE: "Cat-cracking" refers to the use of a catalyst—the mysterious substance that can alter molecules without changing itself.

Ingredient #3 is Alkylate, noted for knock control in hot engines

Jimmy Doolittle helped pioneer this outstanding high-octane ingredient for Shell aviation fuel.

Alkylate—the ingredient that took the dream of 100-octane gasoline out of the lab and put it into the skies—is now in Super Shell. It controls knocking in hot engines at high speeds better than anything else yet available.

NOTE: The engine in your car may frequently turn even faster than the engines of a DC-7 at cruising speed. Think of this next time you are passing on the highway.

Ingredient #4 is anti-knock mix for extra resistance to knocks

You might think that two high-octane ingredients are enough for knock-free performance. But Shell's scientists have ears like musicians.

They insist on adding a special anti-knock mix. A mix, so effective, one teaspoon per gallon can boost anti-knock rating by five points.

This mix has the tricky job of regulating combustion so that Super Shell gives each piston a firm, even push—rather than a sharp blow which would cause a knock.

Ingredient #5 is Butane for quick starts on cold mornings

Butane is so eager to get going that Shell keeps it under pressure 400 feet below ground to stop it from vaporizing by itself. Think what this extra volatility means in cold weather. Your engine fires in seconds. There is less strain on your battery. And none on your patience.

NOTE: Super Shell is primed with Butane all year round. In winter, Shell scientists simply increase the quick-start dose.

Ingredient #6 is Pentane mix for fast warm-ups on cold days

Pentanes are made by tearing gasoline apart, much as you split kindling to start a log fire.

In this case, the "logs" are petroleum's heavier hydrocarbons. A special process transforms their molecules from slow-burning "logs" into the quicker-firing "kindling."

NET RESULT: Fast warm-up and top performance in a hurry.

Ingredient #7 is an "anti-icer" to check cold-weather stalling

Super Shell's formula is adjusted as often as eight times a year to beat the weather. For example, whenever the temperature is likely to be less than forty-five degrees, a carburetor anti-icer is added.

Why add anti-icer at forty-five degrees? Because, even then, frost can form in your carburetor just as it does in your refrigerator. It can choke your engine dead.

Ingredient #8 is gum preventive to keep carburetors clean inside

Even the purest gasoline can form gum when stored. This can clog carburetors and foul automatic chokes. But, with Super Shell, you needn't worry. A special gum preventive does the trick.

It acts like a policeman controlling a mob. Regulates unstable elements to help keep them from clotting. Hence no gum problem.

Ingredient #9 is Platformate for extra energy, more mileage

It takes eight million dollars' worth of platinum catalyst for Shell to produce Platformate. But fortunately for you and for us, this precious stuff can be used over and over again.

The platinum re-forming process, which gives Platformate its odd name, converts petroleum into super-energy components—such as benzene, xylene and toluene.

These three alone release 11 per cent more energy per gallon than the finest 100-octane gasoline.

But make no mistake. This is not untamed energy. Far from it. The super-energy of Platformate is harnessed by the eight other ingredients in Super Shell, where it behaves so well you scarcely know it's there. That is until you note your extra mileage. After that, there is no doubt.

Test Super Shell for yourself

Try Super Shell next time you fill up. You'll soon feel and hear a difference in the way your engine runs.

That difference is top performance.

A BULLETIN FROM SHELL RESEARCH—where 1,997 scientists are working to make your car go better and better.

These rubber-gloved hands are placing a piece of sensitized film on top of a radioactive piston head. This produces what is scientifically known as a "radio autograph," from which Shell's scientists can study the nature and location of engine deposits. Research such as this helps Shell develop products that insure top performance from every size and shape of engine. New, improved TCP is a typical example.
